

Special Work in West Belfast –
Rev David Moore

December 2025

Recently there has been a spate of two kinds of graffiti in West Belfast, both of which are evident on this wall outside the Royal Victoria Hospital.

The other main event in November was the visit of the Scots Gaelic Praise group, Glòriach, pictured here on the evening, who played for almost a full house in the theatre in Cultúrlann. They were very well received and we do hope that they may be able to return to Belfast, perhaps next year when the city plays host to a major Irish music festival, the Fleadh Ceoil.

We will hold our Supporters' Prayer meeting at 7.30pm on Friday 5th December in West Kirk Presbyterian Church. We are looking ahead to our Advent Carol Service in Cultúrlann on Sunday 7th December. In previous years this has been our best attended service of the year. We hope that it may again prove to be something to which people will be ready to come.

Although our Sunday Services are following the theme of the "I AM sayings of Jesus", we are not responsible for the reference to one of those displayed here, but maybe it might make some curious, who knows?

Please pray:

We continue to be encouraged following the renewal of the project by the Linkage Commission and the extension of grant funding by CMI for our Community Outreach Worker post. At our most recent Sunday service we had a number of new faces and there was a real sense of warmth among us. On Thursday evenings there have been occasions when all the seats have been taken around our Bible Study table.

- Give thanks for the number of people who have engaged with us in recent months.
- Pray for faith to be born and grow within them.
- Pray for the Advent Carol Service on 7th Dec.
- Please pray for some longer-term issues for prayer: our desire at some point in the New Year is to be able to move to weekly worship services. The first step in this becoming a reality is to secure our current worship location. Please pray for favour with those in Cultúrlann who have to decide on this.
- We also continue to pray that we may have access to use premises on the Falls Road for other midweek mission purposes.
