

GOD'S WORLD:

Our responsibility?

SUGGESTED AGENCIES AND RESOURCES

The Presbyterian Church in Ireland (PCI) have a range of reports and resources regarding creation: <https://www.presbyterianireland.org/stewardshipofcreation>

PCI's designated relief and development partners offer expertise, advocacy and resources for congregations on the important issue of the environment and creation care. These partners are:

Tearfund: www.tearfund.org/campaigns/climate-campaign/climate-resources

Christian Aid: www.christianaid.ie/get-involved/campaigns/climate-change-campaign

There are other agencies that PCI relate to that may be helpful:

A Rocha UK is a Christian charity working to equip Christians and churches to protect and restore the environment - for God, nature and all people:

<https://arocha.org.uk/>

Climate Stewards is part of the A Rocha family and is passionate about helping people to measure, reduce and offset their carbon footprint, while supporting our global neighbours to adapt to the impacts of climate change: www.climatestewards.org/

Climate Sunday provide resources to congregations who want to address climate change by holding Climate Sunday services, committing to practical action and speaking up for climate justice: www.climatesunday.org/

Creation Care as Jesus Followers is a hub that provides resources to understand creation care & connect with practitioners: <https://creationcare-info.my.canva.site/about>

The Creation Care scheme aims to encourage households to make changes to care for God's world: <https://creationcare.org.uk/resources/>

Eco-congregations Ireland provides guidance and resources to help churches become more environmentally aware:

<https://www.ecocongregationireland.com/>

Equipping Christian Leadership in an Age of Science (ECLAS) is a research and engagement project that offers funds and resources for UK congregations to develop deeper engagement with scientists, theologically, pastorally, or in mission: <https://www.eclasproject.org/congregations/>

EQUIPPING
CHRISTIAN
LEADERSHIP in an AGE of SCIENCE

The Evangelical Alliance exists to serve and strengthen the work of the church in our communities and throughout society through the provision of resources and advocacy on a variety of important issues including the environment and creation care: <https://www.eauk.org/what-we-do/advocacy/environment>

Operation Noah is a Christian charity working with the Church to inspire action on the climate crisis: <https://www.operationnoah.org/>

SOME SUGGESTED READING

Books

Bauckham, R (2017) Bible & Ecology

Bookless, D (2008) Planetwise: Dare to Care for God's World

Wright, C.J.H (2023) The Great Story and the Great Commission: Participating in the Biblical Drama of Mission

Articles

Lausanne statement (2024) Good News for All the Earth: The Korean Invitation to Respond to the Gospel. <https://lausanne.org/statement/good-news-for-all-the-earth>

A broader reading and resource list can be accessed through the agencies listed earlier

The views expressed by the agencies suggested, and within the reading list above, do not necessarily represent the views of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

CONTACTING US

Scan the code or use the link for relevant information and materials from PCI: www.presbyterianireland.org/stewardshipofcreation

For advice or support to help grow your congregation's involvement with creation care, or if you have any questions, please email:

mission@presbyterianireland.org

