

Cable Avoidance

Do you know what is below the foot path before you start digging? 600 people are injured every year due to underground cables being damaged during excavation work on the highway.

Benefits for Delegates

- Reduce cable strikes
- Improved safety for themselves and others
- Hands on training

Benefits for Employers

- Quality controlled training from PSS
- Flexible training available Nationwide
- Improved safety and technical competence

Course Details

Price: From £100+vat

Length: 1 day

Start Time: by location

End Time: by location

Lunch: by location

Study Method: Open Course/Onsite

Syllabus

- Reasons for using locators - both safety and financial
- Theory - covering both the benefits of the system and limitations of the technology
- HSE video - Alive or dead
- Practical work - hands on locating, using a receiver, transmitter and accessories
- Feedback, questions and answers, applications and techniques and general care and maintenance of equipment
- Simple ways to locate street lighting cables
- Location of bends
- Location of junctions
- Identification of utilities
- Service connections
- Location through concrete reinforcing
- Depth measures (where applicable)
- Using sondes for non metallic pipes

Onsite Courses

Project Skills Solutions provide onsite courses Nationwide. Contact our training team to see how much you can save. Train your team together, save money, and provide hands on practical training and experience.

