

MAURIZIO SALA

Executive Vice President and Chief Planning and Controlling Officer

Born in 1963.

Degree in Economics at Università Cattolica in Milan in 1988.

In 1989 he joined Pirelli Tyre within the Administration and Control Department, covering different roles with increasing responsibility of Planning, Industrial and Commercial Control both for the Italian company and the Headquarter.

He was appointed Head of Tyre Administration and Control Department for the Italian company in 1998.

In 2000, transferred to Latin America, he was Regional Director of Tyre Administration and Control.

After returning to Italy in 2002, he was appointed Tyre Director of Administration and Control Department.

Since September 2009 he is the Chief Planning and Controlling Officer of the Pirelli Group.

Since April 2017 he is Executive Vice President and Chief Planning and Controlling Officer.

Last Revised: 4 Oct 2017 7:00 am