

FRANCESCO TANZI

Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

Born in 1964.

After graduating in Business Economics at Milan's Luigi Bocconi University, in 1989, he started his career as Junior Professional in the Export Financing Unit of Pirelli.

In 1992 he moved to Pirelli Financial Planning Department and in 1995 he started his experience abroad, joining Pirelli International Treasury in Basel (CH) with the responsibility of Asset & Liability Management.

In 1997 he returned to Pirelli Headquarter in Milan, where he became responsible of the Financial Planning department and in March 2000 he was appointed Deputy Group Treasurer, acting in such position in the corporate seats of Milan and Basle and also in the International Treasury Department of the Pirelli Group, that in the same year moved from Basle to London.

In November 2001, further to the acquisition by Pirelli S.p.A. of the reference shareholding in Olivetti (then merged in Telecom Italia S.p.A.), he moved to Rome as Finance Director of Telecom Italia S.p.A., coming back to Milan in 2003. In the Telecom Group, from August 2008, he was also responsible for the Merger and Acquisition department.

At the date of the Registration Document he is Chief Financial Officer of Pirelli; he has been also appointed, by the Board of Directors, Officer responsible for the preparation of the financial reports. Since April 2017 he is Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.
