

DAVIDE SALA

Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer

Born in Milan in 1975.

In 2000 he graduated in Political Science at Cattolica University of Milan. His professional career begins in Rhodia (today part of Solvay Group) as Industrial Relations Specialist, and progresses into the role of HR Plant Manager in 2003. In the same year he obtains a Master in Human Resources Management at the Carlo Cattaneo University of Varese.

He joins Pirelli in 2004 as HR Plant Manager of the Bollate plant where he remains until 2006, when he takes on the role of HRBP Manufacturing.

In 2008 he relocates to China after being appointed HR Director Asia Pacific. He returns to Italy in March 2011 and takes on the role of HRBP Commercial Functions at the Company Headquarters in Milan.

In the following years his areas of responsibility increase, leading to additional roles being added to his functions: HR Director Europe (2013), Operations Functions (2014) and Technology Functions (2017).

In October 2017 he is appointed Head of Human Resources and Organization.

As of May 2018 he is the new Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer of Pirelli Group.

Last Revised: 14 May 2018