

MNOW Magazine presents women who make a difference in this world.
Introducing

Shari Arison,

the wealthiest woman in the Middle East,
a woman dedicated to helping improve society
and bring peace and unity to the world.
Shari just published a light, lovely book,
connecting the spiritual and physical world to one.
Through this awareness Shari and many others
believe that true peace is just around the corner.

We all can use some more tips for success, if not from the wealthiest woman in the Middle East, then from who?"
