

LAND DISPUTES IN SOUTH SUDAN INCLUDE

Grazing land dispute (on community land)

Boundary disputes (private plots and community land boundaries)

Secondary occupation of houses and empty plots by either the displaced people or host because the owner fled due to the conflict

Land grabbing by individuals (mostly during the displacement-the soldiers who took control of an area tend to take ownership of any good house they find causing fear on the civilian owner to claim back the house)

LAND DISPUTES IN SOUTH SUDAN INCLUDE

Multiple registration of a plot of land (common in urban areas)

PRIVATE LAND DISPUTE

Do not fight over land!
Report all disagreements to local authorities near you.

Traditional leaders can allocate land in conjunction with the authorities

Men and women have equal rights to land.

LEGAL IDENTITY

Based on the high level of illiteracy and the centralized public institutions have made many people especially in rural ignorant or reluctant to obtain essential legal documents. People also take for granted the fact that they have been living in the area since birth and inherited the land from their fore fathers meaning that nothing can be deprived from their ownership of the land. Therefore, with the mass displacement which has occurred due to the conflict in the country, many are at risk of being deprived of their ancestral land especially if they return to their original areas and also many have not been able to acquire land or employment in the area of their displacement because they do not have legal identity documents. Therefore, it is important to understand the importance of these documents and how to acquire them.

1. BIRTH CERTIFICATE

Ensure you visit the nearest health facility for your pregnancy care

After delivery, it becomes easy to register the child at the health facility.

The health facility administrators will help you register The child by filling in some forms, notification given and the birth certificate granted after some time.

LEGAL IDENTITY

Based on the high level of illiteracy and the centralized public institutions have made many people especially in rural ignorant or reluctant to obtain essential legal documents. People also take for granted the fact that they have been living in the area since birth and inherited the land from their fore fathers meaning that nothing can be deprived from their ownership of the land. Therefore, with the mass displacement which has occurred due to the conflict in the country, many are at risk of being deprived of their ancestral land especially if they return to their original areas and also many have not been able to acquire land or employment in the area of their displacement because they do not have legal identity documents. Therefore, it is important to understand the importance of these documents and how to acquire them.

2. NATIONAL ID

Collect form 12 at Directorate of Nationality, Passport and Immigration (DNPI) office,

Fill and return it to the officer who will interview you together with your witness.

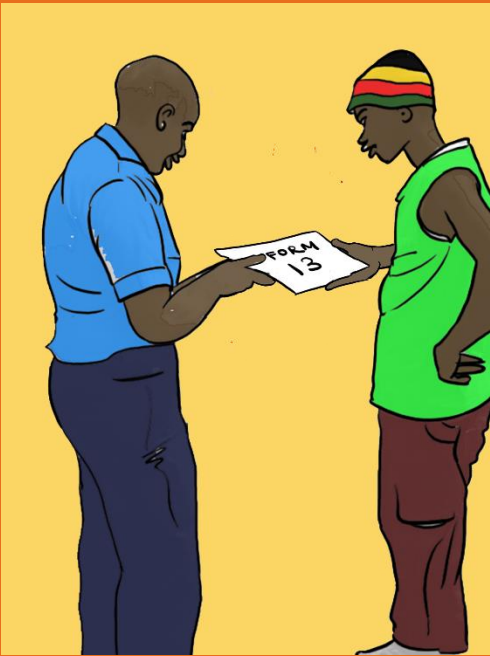

Requirements. Passport size photos, copy of medical certificate showing blood group, birth certificate or assessment of age certificate, a witness, fees.

LEGAL IDENTITY

Based on the high level of illiteracy and the centralized public institutions have made many people especially in rural ignorant or reluctant to obtain essential legal documents. People also take for granted the fact that they have been living in the area since birth and inherited the land from their fore fathers meaning that nothing can be deprived from their ownership of the land. Therefore, with the mass displacement which has occurred due to the conflict in the country, many are at risk of being deprived of their ancestral land especially if they return to their original areas and also many have not been able to acquire land or employment in the area of their displacement because they do not have legal identity documents. Therefore, it is important to understand the importance of these documents and how to acquire them.

3. PASSPORT AND OTHER TRAVEL DOCUMENTS.

Collecting form 13 from the DNPI and carefully fill in the information required

Returning the duly filled form with two passport size photos and a copy of your nationality certificate, a copy of your witness nationality certificate to the DNPI

Processes includes an interview by the immigration officials, after an approval, one pays the required fees at the DNPI cashiers office, passport photos, and receive a notification documents from the DNPI office and await the passport in due time.