In an era of historic rates of global displacement, people are increasingly fleeing to cities for security, employment opportunities, social connection and the promise of self-reliance. On November 13th, the International Rescue Committee and Citi will present their new report, Urban Refuge, which highlights the efforts of over 20 city governments around the world that are welcoming refugees and displaced populations.

Speakers will include senior representatives of the International Rescue Committee, 100 Resilient Cities – Pioneered by the Rockefeller Foundation, C40, and representatives from host cities such as Amman, Athens, and Kampala.

Light refreshments starting at 9:00am. Lunch will be served.

If you would like to attend, please register on Eventbrite. You must have a ticket to enter. For any comments or questions, please email Samer Saliba at samer.saliba@rescue.org.
