

SHELTER RESPONSE OVERVIEW- CYCLONE IDAI (SHELTER CLUSTER 4W DATA)

SHELTER CLUSTER PARTNER ACTIVITY – REPORTING TO SHELTER CLUSTER 4W

EMERGENCY SHELTER

provide cover from weather and minimum of privacy and safety. Can last up to a year if but should be replaced by transitional or permanent solutions earlier.

Emergency shelters in Nhamatanda, some days after the floods end February 2020

Emergency shelter for Idai after app. one year.

TRANSITIONAL SHELTER

Transitional shelter can provide minimum standards of safety and dignity for approx. 3 years depending on quality.

PERMANENT SHELTER → HOUSING

Permanent shelter often designed as a minimum core house (18m²) to be extended and upgraded later.

DATA SOURCES FOR RAIN EVENTS INCREASING EMERGENCY SHELTER NEEDS DURING RAINY SEASON

RAIN EVENT 1	https://dtm.iom.int/reports/mozambique-%E2%80%93-flash-report-rain-damages-resettlement-sites-11-december-2019	4257 HH
RAIN EVENT 2	https://dtm.iom.int/reports/mozambique-%E2%80%93-flash-report-rain-damages-resettlement-sites-2-08-10-january	306 HH
RAIN EVENT 3	https://dtm.iom.int/reports/mozambique-%E2%80%93-flash-report-rain-damages-resettlement-sites-3-20-22-january-2020	8070 HH
RAIN EVENT 4	https://dtm.iom.int/reports/mozambique-%E2%80%93-flash-report-rain-damages-resettlement-sites-5-16-19-february-2020	1348 HH
RAIN EVENT 5	https://dtm.iom.int/reports/mozambique-%E2%80%93-flash-report-rain-damages-resettlement-sites-no-6-19-20-february-2020	2709 HH

TOTAL: 16.700