FIA Stewards
Log No 048

2019 FIA WTCR – RACE OF MALAYSIA

From The Stewards Decision N° 12
To The Competitors' Representative
KCMG

The Stewards, having received a protest (Document log035) from:

Car	9	Competitor	KCMG
		Driver	A. Tassi
against
Car	8	Competitor	BRC Hyundai N Lukoil Racing Team
		Driver	A. Farfus

after viewing video evidence, examining independent data, summoning, hearing from the Competitors' Representatives and Drivers, considering detailed timing reports and having extensively considered all available material concerning the matter, declare the protest admissible, determine that a breach of the regulations has not been committed by the competitor named below and dismiss the Protest.

No / Driver 8 / A. Farfus
Competitor BRC Hyundai N Lukoil Racing Team
Time 20:10
Session Qualifying 2
Facts Car 9 alleged the driver of Car 8 deliberately braked early before Turn 15 to impede Car 9 causing him to lose time on his fast lap.
Offence Involved in an incident as defined by Article 17.1 of the FIA WTCR Sporting Regulations, namely illegitimately impeding another driver.
Decision Protest dismissed and Protest fee forfeited.
Reason A. Tassi alleged A. Farfus had deliberately braked early before Turn 15 and intentionally caused him to lose time on his fast lap. This was denied by A. Farfus. The independent data from Magneti Marelli showed A. Farfus had braked at the same point as on his quickest lap. Based on the evidence of the data the submissions by and on behalf of A. Tassi were not accepted by the stewards

The Competitors reminded of their right to appeal in accordance with Article 15 of the FIA International Sporting Code.
