Family Sunday

Opening Night

Sunday 30 Nov 2025
1.30pm — 4pm

The stage is set for Opening Night Family Sunday!

Get ready for a day packed with music, movement, and magical moments at the Royal Opera House.

Unleash the power of your voice and help defeat the mischievous resident snake, STANLEY, in our interactive sound adventure, Snake Attack!

Royal Ballet Principal Dancer STEVEN MCRAE takes over the Clore Studio with an exciting, hands-on workshop inspired by his new children’s book, Anything is Possible with Ballet.

There’s more ballet magic in store with former Royal Ballet Principal ZENAIDA YANOWSKY, as she introduces the AUD JEBSEN dancers in a live demonstration from The Nutcracker.

Throughout the day, let your imagination soar with Swan Lake storytelling from the enchanting MAGIC VIOLIN TRIO and master storyteller SALLY POMME CLAYTON. Join in a joyful ballet barre session, lift your voice in the BIG SING, or get creative with our team of craft wizards and make your very own Opening Night keepsake.

There’s so much to see, do, and discover. Get stuck in and let the adventure begin!

Please be aware we have a buggy park on site but the cloakroom will be closed during the event. Please pack with this in mind.

*Family Sundays can be quite noisy. Ear defenders can be requested for you or your little person. Just ask a member of staff in a black t-shirt.

A Musical Welcome
