SEGER PRO MOTION & WORK WEAR

If you're proud of what you're wearing, keeping your head high is easier. That's why it's wise to invest in quality and style when promoting your organization or dressing up your staff in high quality workwear that stands the test of time.

Seger's history stretches back more than 75 years, and we've consistently delivered knitted quality to everyone, including elite and amateur athletes, royalties, and families.

The sporting world has rigorous demands on quality and function, so we continually develop, improve, and refine our products.

Part of that development involves environmental considerations so that future generations can enjoy our shared nature.

Our aim is to leave as small an environmental footprint as possible. That is why we power our entire factory with certified wind power energy. Stay warm and create your own green profile with Seger products.
