FIRST TO FIGHT, POLISH FORCES 1939

POLAND, FIRST TO FIGHT

In September 1939, Poland stood alone against two of the most powerful military forces in the world. From the west came the relentless advance of Nazi Germany; from the east, the crushing weight of the Soviet Union. Surrounded, outnumbered, and betrayed by circumstance, the soldiers of Poland faced impossible odds with unshaken courage across burning cities, shattered forests, and open plains.

Lead these determined Polish forces into battle and relive the desperate opening clashes of the Second World War. Rally brave infantry companies, unleash fierce cavalry counterattacks, and field the armoured trains, tankettes, and artillery that fought against overwhelming enemy numbers. Outgunned and outmatched, Polish troops fought with skill, determination, and incredible bravery, striking hard against both German and Soviet invaders. Their courage and sacrifice forged one of the most heroic campaigns of the war.
