For Christmas 2021, The Story Museum is pulling out all the stops!

A mother and her son share traditional tales of clever Grandparents (as if there's any other kind), donkeys, wishes, and cunning mice that will be music to your ears.

Join them as they explore how a star can suddenly appear and strike an unexpected chord. With gentle humour and a big dollop of light-hearted family squabbles (it is Christmas after all), this is a show that will have all ages under its spell, and carries the important message that everyone has the ability to shine their own light, in their own way.

Written and performed by award-winning writer, Renata Allen, and songwriter and musician, David Gibb, Suddenly A Star weaves a galaxy of stories stretching back through time to the present day that's guaranteed to leave your students with music in their hearts and stars in their eyes.
