An epic story that ends at the table.
Play
Children’s Film Festival

Tickets: adults, 3.50 euros; children up to 13 years of age, 2.80 euros. More information at: playfest.pt

The film festival, totally dedicated to the children, is back for another edition. For nine days, Cinema São Jorge will open its doors to show the best selection of films from the four corners of the world. Aiming to promote creativity, stimulate aesthetic sensitivity and activate critical thinking, films will be shown which are especially dedicated to babies, pre-school children and children in the first and second stages of basic education. Several films will be shown, both feature films and short films, so that the younger ones may get to know a little about what is presented in the international children’s film festivals.
Valentine’s Day Concert

14th February, at 21:00, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96
(metro: Restauradores). Tickets: from 20 to 40 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

The Valentine's Day music festival, “Montepio às vezes o amor”, takes place a little all over the country and in Lisboa it is celebrated with a concert by Resistência. The music group, which this year celebrates three decades of existence, goes on stage at the Coliseu to once again join guitars, voices and its greatest hits. “Mano a Mano”, “Ao Vivo no Armazém 22”, “Nasce Selvagem”, “Não Sou o Único”, “Lugar ao Sol” are some of the songs which will certainly be a part of a festival which promises to spread emotion and make Portugal more romantic.
Do you dare to enter Alice’s world? That is the challenge which Magical Garden presents to all those who visit it. It is a magical journey through the most fun and thrilling random situations experienced by the character created by Lewis Carroll. It is a sensorial adventure inspired by “Alice in Wonderland” and “Alice Through the Looking Glass”, which proposes an immersive one kilometre journey, in which the spectator is simultaneously a part of the story. The show has no beginning and no end, unfolding in a one-way route with 24 luminous experiences taken from both books: giant luminous sculptures, light design, sound environments, multimedia and interactive installations, such as an augmented reality application. The visitor may take his time in his favourite moments, because the visit has no other time limit besides the closing of the garden.
Until 18th February, from 7pm to 9pm, Castelo de São Jorge, Rua de Santa Cruz do Castelo (trams: 12, 28 | buses: 737). Tickets: 5 euros, general; free up to 16 years of age.

Winter Dream
Castle of S. Jorge

Castelo de São Jorge will be filled with light in all its corners. To visit the monument at this time of the year is even more wonderful now. Under the February moonlight, and for one month, we will be able to see João Botelho’s light installation. Under the motto “Winter Dream” (“Sonho de Inverno”, in Portuguese), light, sound and image will bring a new life to the Romantic Garden, the Ogival Room, to the first and second Main Squares, to the Courtyard and to the Castle Ovens.

Useful Information

Lisboa is the capital of Portugal and the country's biggest city, located on the estuary of the Tejo river, on the European Atlantic coast. It is continental Europe's westernmost capital. Portugal's official language is Portuguese. Derived from Latin roots, Portuguese is the third most spoken European language in the world, with around 200 million speakers. Around 3 million people live in the Lisboa region, with around 600 thousand living in the capital itself. The Portuguese Constitution allows religious freedom, with various religions being practised in Portugal.

Electric voltage: 230 / 400 volts, on a 50-hertz frequency. The electric sockets adhere to European standards. Blade plugs (US standard) must be used in conjunction with a 230 volts transformer, as well as an adaptor.

In Lisboa winters are mild and summers hot, though moderated by its location near the sea. During spring and autumn there are usually sunny days with mild temperatures.

Local currency and Payments

The Euro is Portugal's official currency, having been introduced in January 2002. 1 Euro is divided into 100 cents. There are coins of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents and 1 and 2 Euros. The bills can be distinguished by their size and colour and have the following face values: 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Euros. In Portugal, payments can be made in cash, bank transfer, cheque, credit cards and debit cards.

Marcos Morau’s contemporary dance company, La Veronal, makes its debut in Lisboa with “Pasionaria”. The artist resorts to different expressive means, like film, photography or literature, to embody his narrative language, which never ceases to surprise. “Pasionaria” is an imaginary place, inhabited by beings created to imitated the humans. The representation seeks to achieve a reflection on emotional detachment, individualism and moral cowardice.

INTANGIBLE HERITAGE OF HUMANITY

Fado

THE SONG OF LISBOA AND THE WORLD
The song of Lisboa and the World

Classified as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO since November 2011, Fado is the purest expression of Lisboa’s “soul”. Much more than just a song, Fado is a musical manifestation of feeling Portuguese and a city’s way of life, always accompanied by the solemn and melancholy chords of the Portuguese guitar. Considered a brand inseparable from the culture and tradition of the Portuguese capital, Fado has been for at least two centuries, part of the city’s heritage that endowed it with soul and voice. But since influences from overseas, and from various cultures which arrived in Lisboa can also be heard in Fado, Lisboa’s song is now deservedly a shared heritage with the world. Inspired from a simple and sentimental language, Fado’s universal character surpasses all barriers and is now enjoyed by millions of fans worldwide. This internationalization of Fado is greatly due to the charisma and the voice of Amália Rodrigues, the most renowned fado singer of all time, who from the 1950’s took Lisboa’s song to the most prestigious venues, from Russia to Japan. More recently, a new generation of singers of this genre has given the song a new vitality, placing it in the circuits of World Music. The ultimate international recognition of Fado comes with UNESCO’s highest recognition, whose award of the Intangible Heritage of Humanity title makes this a perfect example of how a centuries-old tradition of a city becomes the identity symbol of a people. Therefore, whenever the lights are dimmed in a fado house and someone says “Silence, Fado is about to be sung”, this is not just a ritual that is being performed. It is, as Amália Rodrigues would say, “a strange form of life” that is being renewed.
Fado Houses
Here visitors can experience the whole atmosphere and rituals associated with Lisboa’s song and listen to this language of emotions. Set in the historic districts of the city such as Alfama, Bairro Alto, Lapa and Alcântara, there are diverse establishments which host regular performances of fado, with resident artists.

In a month acclaimed for its romanticism, the love story between a prince and a young woman turned into a swan by a sorcerer’s spell goes on stage again in a production with more than 40 dancers of the Royal Russian Ballet. In a choreography which requires dexterity, great technical precision and is cradled by Tchaikovsky’s rhythm, "Swan Lake" combines tradition and the triumph of good over evil in a story which is already considered a great classic of the dance repertoire.
CONCERTS

Variations on the folia
Orquestra de Câmara Portuguesa

6th February, at 17:00, Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império (tram: 15 | buses: 714, 727, 728, 729, 751). Tickets: from 15 to 30 euros. More information at: ccb.pt

Folia is the name given to a melody and dance which had its origin in the 15th century and has been used in different harmonic schemes since then. Several authors have tried to create a meaning for this Portuguese music and dance form. In this concert, in a sort of tribute to classical music, the orchestra conducted Pedro Carneiro invites the audience to revisit the 26 Variations on “La Folia”, by Antonio Salieri, as well as the “Peasant Cantata” BWV 211, by Bach, and the “Folk Songs”, by Luciano Berio.

Mozart for all

6th February, at 12:00 and at 17:00, Grande Auditório da Fundação Gulbenkian, Av. de Berna (metro: Praça de Espanha, São Sebastião | buses: 716, 726, 756, 746, 713, 742). Tickets: 10 euros. More information at: gulbenkian.pt

The first Sunday in February is celebrated with Mozart. “The Marriage of Figaro”, “Don Giovanni” and “The Magic Flute”, three of the most remarkable and popular operas by the Austrian composer, will be heard in the interpretation of the soprano Cecilia Rodrigues and the baritone André Henriques and the chords of the Orquestra Gulbenkian, conducted by Diogo Costa, in the great auditorium of the foundation.
CONCERTS

Camané

Camané goes on stage at Teatro da Trindade to present his most recent album, which came out in October of last year. “Horas Vazias” is the title of his first studio work in the last seven years. The fado singer presents it in a special concert: on the stage where he first performed professionally. Accompanying him will be the usual musicians: José Manuel Neto on the Portuguese guitar, Carlos Manuel Proença on the fado guitar, Paulo Paz on the contrabass and a special guest.

Boogarins

“Dino” Almeida and Benke Ferraz created a psychedelic pop which lead them to the release of “As Plantas Que Curam” in 2013. The debut album took them all over Brazil and now, with their fourth album out, they are planning a European tour. The band goes on stage at Musicbox to present “Sombrou Dúvida”, a wordplay in the native Boogarins Brazilian Portuguese and a contraction of “Sombra ou Dúvida”, the title track from their most recent album.
The Harry Potter saga film concerts are back. This year, the Orquestra Filarmonia das Beiras will play the “Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix” soundtrack live. The compositions by Nicholas Hooper reveal themselves as innovative and embody experimental techniques and unique instruments, mainly to enhance Umbridge’s influence and Voldemort’s action in Harry’s mind. With compositions nominated for the World Soundtrack Discovery award, the orchestra will play while the film is shown, in full and in high definition, on a 20 meter wide by eight meter high screen.
The Parrots

25th February, at 22:00, Musicbox, Rua Nova do Carvalho,
More information at: musicboxlisboa.com

The Parrots, with their garage band manner, have already performed on stages all over Europe, the United States and Central America. After singles and EPs, the first album, Los Niños Sin Miedo, was released in 2016. Five years later, the band are now presenting their second album, with catchy songs, new vibes and many surprises.
CONCERTS

26th February, at 19:00, Grande Auditório da Culturgest, Rua Arco do Cego, 50 (metro: Campo Pequeno). Tickets: 16 euros. More information at: culturgest.pt

Emma Ruth Rundle
Engine of hell

As part of a European tour, Emma Rundle returns to Portugal for a more intimate concert to present her new album, “Engine Of Hell”. Back at the piano, the artist returns to the records and to the instrument which taught her music. Her most recent work may be described as a journey to the memories of her youth, which frontally expose her fears and ghosts. This new album marks the beginning of a new cycle in the artist’s career, more open to new arts and reflections.

Joana Espadinha

Joana Espadinha presents her most recent album live: “Ninguém Nos Vai Tirar O Sol”. On a night where pop music fills the room, the artist, on the keyboard, and her musicians, on the guitar, drums, bass and percussion, promise to make the audience shake their bodies to the rhythm of songs like “Dar Resposta”, “O Príncipe e o Sapo”, “Queda Prá Desgraça”, “Mau Feitio”, and several others. Musical assertiveness and decipherable irony are once again the key points of the songs interpreted by Joana Espadinha’s voice.
CONCERTS

Requiem by Fauré
Gulbenkian Choir and Orchestra

24th February, at 20:00, and 25th, at 19:00, Grande Auditório da Fundação Gulbenkian, Avenida de Berna (metro: Praça de Espanha, São Sebastião | buses: 716, 726, 756, 746, 713, 742). Tickets: from 18 to 30 euros. More information at: gulbenkian.pt

“Offertorium”, “Pie Jesu” and “Requiem” are the works which will be interpreted by the Coro e Orquestra Gulbenkian. In spite of covering the religious theme, their productions had distinct motivations. While “Offertorium” was composed by Sofia Gubaidulina purposely for violinist Gidon Kremer, “Pie Jesu”, by Lili Boulanger, was dedicated to her older sister, the composer and conductor Nadia Boulanger. On the other hand, “Requiem”, by Gabriel Fauré, is as much a eulogy as it is a personal challenge.

Carnival Concert
Metropolitan Orchestra from Lisbon

27th February, at 17:00, Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império (tram: 15 | buses: 714, 727, 728, 729, 751). Tickets: from 12,50 to 25 euros. More information at: ccb.pt

Can music be a carnival mask? The Orquestra Metropolitana de Lisboa will try to give an answer to this question in its Carnival concert. After all, music builds identities. Whether they are heroes, villains or mythological beings, the orchestra promises to fill the stage with the different beings which inhabit Planet Music, in a party where the audience is expected to show spirited masks of the most varied shapes and sizes.
In this exhibition, photographer Daniel Blaufuks presents a selection of images which integrate his most recent book, Lisboa Cliché. The photographs were taken in the end of the 1980s and beginning of the 1990s and reveal a Lisboa taking the first steps in a more cosmopolitan, prosperous and international life. 80 of the more than 300 photographs published in the book are now exhibited in Palácio Pimenta, ready to take the visitors on a journey through a Lisboa from other times.
Lisboa - an invitation for romanticism

Lisboa is a romantic city. Just observe how the houses descend towards the Tejo, almost like in a passionate embrace. This is what it looks like every month of the year and February is no exception. In the month of St. Valentine, the city invites people to take romantic strolls along its hills and viewpoints, through the green areas, along the riverside or even around the tourist facilities where art and history merge.

For those who look for a cozy and quiet place but do not dispense with a good view over Lisboa, the Torel viewpoint is the perfect spot. Surrounded by a garden and by villas from the 18th and 19th centuries, it is a place with a lake with sand all around, which makes it a real urban beach. Bordering on the São Pedro de Alcântara viewpoint, this garden with its almost secret entrance offers a privileged view over Avenida da Liberdade and the São Roque hill.
Another corner with a unique view has a name which leaves no room for doubt: Retreat viewpoint (mira-douro do Recolhimento). Overlooking an old Lisboa, this garden space allows people to contemplate from the towers of the Mosteiro de São Vicente de Fora to the dome of the Panteão Nacional, from the Igreja de Santo Estevão to the quarter of Alfama. Very close to the Castelo de São Jorge, this is one more corner to share with someone special. Not to mention the castle itself, which battlements open over the city, providing those in love with a thousand and one beautiful frames.

The Tejo can also be considered a perfect excuse for a romantic tour. In order to better appreciate it, it is worth walking along Ribeira das Naus avenue, which connects the Cais das Colunas to Cais do Sodré and where the history of the city and the river meet, or also the area connecting Cais do Sodré to Belém, one of the most beautiful straight roads in Lisboa. To take a tour on the Tejo is another option: be it shorter or longer, a boat tour is a must. Thus, starting from Estação Sul e Sueste it is possible to choose different boat tours and in the Doca da Marinha one can get tours in more traditional boats.

From the blue of the river to the green of the gardens, in Lisboa there are spaces for every taste. The Jardim do Campo Grande is the perfect example: it was rebuilt with the intention of making it a space for romantic strolls. The flower beds, trees and pathways were designed around a lake, where it is possible to rent a row boat. Also the garden at the Fundação Gulbenkian is already an iconic place. Characterized by the landscape architecture and the diversity of the flora, there are many corners where one can contemplate the quiet and nature and...flirt.

Lisboa is the only capital in Europe where one can see the sun setting on the ocean, so heading to the Torre de Belém or the surrounding gardens to capture the moment at the end of the day is the right choice.

And, for a more adventurous couple, Lisboa has the perfect spot: the Pilar 7, at the Ponte 25 de Abril, an height experience which raises emotions to a whole other level.

From more quiet and cosy corners to busier and more cosmopolitan places, Lisboa has many romantic spots to explore. Discover for yourself.

CISNOGRAFIA

The rewriting of the swan

Until 27th February, from Tuesday to Sunday, from 10am to 6pm, Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga, Rua das Janelas Verdes (buses: 713, 714, 727). Tickets: 6 euros, general, students and seniors, 3 euros. More information at: museudearteantiga.pt

This exhibition was created by choreographer Luiz Antunes and had the artistic direction of choreographer André Mendes. The work exhibited is the result of a challenge made to 13 choreographers, performances and interpreters, who were asked to, individually and having their own languages and work codes in mind, rewrite the death of the swan. Each solo results in a three minute film, coming to a total of thirteen films to which a final one was added, with a summary and a dramaturgical connection to all the previous ones. Using objects from the history of dance, contexts and ideologies, this work creates ideological patterns which question the dominant ethic and aesthetic regimes.

EXHIBITIONS

Japan, a land of poets

In this exhibition by Catarina Quintas, winner of the competition to support artistic creation for young people at the beginning of their careers, each drawing can represent a short trip to traditional Japan. Full of customs and histories, the beauty of Japan is represented here in Chinese ink and watercolor drawings. In this exhibition, the investigation joins the imagination to recreate episodes from everyday life and from the Japanese spiritual dimension. The artist tried to reproduce some of the aspects she admires in Japanese culture, as a tribute to a land of poets.

Dante’s Divine Comedy Marionettes

The 700th anniversary of the death of Dante Alighieri is being marked in this exhibition of Alberto Manguel’s marionettes in the Casa Fernando Pessoa temporary exhibitions hall. Manguel, a writer and researcher, is an expert on the works of the author of “The Divine Comedy”. Some years ago he revealed a hitherto unknown facet of his life: that of the amateur puppet master. This exhibition combines his oldest passion with his most recent, with 89 marionettes that he created on the basis of the 14th-century masterpiece. Visitors can also see the notebooks in which he has collected clippings of reproductions of the works that inspired him, as well as his original sketches. Copies of “The Divine Comedy” owned by Fernando Pessoa and Alberto Manguel will also be on display. An Argentine-Canadian, Manguel is currently the director of the Centro de Estudos da História da Leitura in Lisboa.

Sombras de vento.
Entre águas

Tickets: 5 euros, general, 2,50 students and seniors, free entry on Sunday until 14:00. More information at: fasvs.pt

The individual exhibition by the artist Carlos Nogueira gathers a series of works done throughout 2021. The objects gathered here, despite being daily utensils which bring to mind their original functions, are exhibited as being in a transition state between matter and art. "Sombras de vento. Entre águas" thus intends to activate an artistic dimension of the objects, in which, by means of lighting effects, they are seen as being in stand-by to become something different.

Inquieta Ansiedade.
Works from the Rui Victorino collection

Until 8th May, from Wednesday to Sunday, from 10:00 to 18:00, Fundação Arpad Szenes - Vieira da Silva, Praça das Amoreiras (buses: 706, 709, 713, 758, 720, 727, 738, 774, 723 | metro: Rato). In “Inquieta Ansiedade” we can find 60 works of modern and contemporary art, from the private collection of doctor and investigator Rui Victorino. With predominantly national artists, this exhibition intends to show some of the protagonists of modernism in Portugal. The exhibition tries to consider the concerns of the artists, who were able to capture and interpret the actuality of the aesthetic movements of the time. Works by authors like Paula Rego, Helena Almeida, Eduardo Nery, Noronha da Costa, Jorge Martins can be found in this exhibition, as well as works by international artists, such as Vasarely, Albers or Sônia Deaunay.
Until 15th May, from Wednesday to Sunday, from 10am to 6pm, last entry at 5:30pm; Museu do Dinheiro, Largo de São Julião (buses: 206, 210, 706, 728, 735, 774, 781, 782). Free entry. More information at: museudodinheiro.pt

Five centuries ago, more precisely on a May day in 1575, the view of Lisboa from the Tejo was quite different from the one we have today. At the time, Portugal was a commercial empire, pioneer in the opening of several sea routes and Lisboa had the Tejo as an entrance door, where every day ships arrived with merchandise from all the cities in the world. On a normal day, 14th May, Simão de Miranda, a Portuguese in the service of the duke of Turin, arrived on a ship and took the opportunity of his short visit to draw and impressive view of the city from the Tejo. It was because of archaeological evidences recovered from the old church of S. Julião, where this drawing was included, that several objects from that time were found. This exhibition reveals aspects from the daily life of the city of Lisboa by the end of the sixteenth century.

With the exhibition “Breviário do Quotidiano #8” the physical space of the Fundação Arpad Szenes - Vieira da Silva is transformed into an artistic space. The sculptures represented here, which are also mobile, make it possible to turn life into a performance during the exhibition. All because Ana Pérez-Quironga installed the “House” in the space of the museum. Focused on daily life, the artist centers her work around this theme and the significance of the common objects in constructing a self-representation. Thus, she opens doors and windows to different perceptions of spaces and objects.
EXHIBITIONS

Daniel Dewar & Grégory Gicquel

Until 22nd May, from Tuesday to Friday, from noon to 7pm, weekend, from 11am to 6pm, Culturgest, Rua Arco do Cego (metro: Campo Pequeno). Tickets: from Tuesday to Saturday, 5 euros; Sunday, 1 euro. More information at: culturgest.pt

In this exhibition, Daniel Dewar and Grégory Gicquel present a world which is rather similar to ours, but with slight differences and distortions. Augmented, fragmented, chipped, molten and even duplicated objects create the idea that they exist in another dimension or in another planet, where the absurd gives way to the ordinary and daily. The artists' duo, which has worked together since they were college students, uses terracotta, wood, stone and textile, both for their artistic productions and to create the utensils they then use to make the objects.

Yuri Dojc's and Katya Krausova's exhibition reveals images of what is left of the last historic testimony in the life of a people. A story interrupted by the Jews' deportation to concentration camps in 1942. Ruins of schools, synagogue wreckage, pieces left from books and objects can be found in this exhibition, which also includes a series of Holocaust survivors' portraits and a film which expose the signs of the destruction of Jewish culture caused by the nazis.

Eileen Gray

What if architect Eileen Gray’s E.1027 house was reproduced at a 1:1 scale? To address the theme of the modern in the feminine and not forget the path traced by Eileen Gray, the National Museum of Contemporary Art presents an exhibition that seeks to reveal not only the architectural space but also 15 original pieces of furniture by the author.
