FIMFA
FESTIVAL INTERNACIONAL
DE MARIONETAS

INDIE LISBOA
INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL
Indie Lisboa
International Film Festival

Until 8th May, in several movie theatres around the city: Cinema São Jorge, Cinemateca Portuguesa (metro: Avenida); Culturgest (metro: Campo Pequeno) and Cinema Ideal (trams: 24E and 28E). Tickets: 4,50 euros. More information at: indielisboa.com

The 19th edition of the International Film Festival is dedicated to the author of the phrase “When I die, I will be making movies in hell!”, the North American director Doris Wishman (1912-2002). With a career marked by bad reputation, demonstrating that her work represented something which images were not allowed to show, she was, therefore, an autodidact. Doris Wishman outlined her career by herself and was, simultaneously, producer, director and editor in most of her movies. This year, they are presented at Indie Lisboa as a retrospective of the artist’s work.
FIMFA
International Festival of Puppetry and Animated Forms

From 13th May, in several theatres in Lisboa. Tickets: from 3 to 18 euros.

More information at: tarumba.pt

Thinking the Future is the theme of the 22nd edition of the International Festival of Puppetry and Animated Forms. With the intention of questioning interpersonal relationships, as well as relationships with technology and robotics and with the environment, 20 shows by national and international creators will be presented on nine stages in the city. The program of the festival also has plans for the younger ones, namely with three shows: “Karl”, with wooden forms, by the French company Betty BoiBrut, “Hermit”, a miniature house and its timid inhabitant, a piece by a Dutch author, and “Big Bugs”, giant insects, also by a Dutch author.
The festival Temps d’Images is back with its spring Moment I. Celebrating 20 years, this season includes six pieces extending until June. The first four presented this month are the sound installation by João Bento, “DeGelo”, at Appleton, about the preservation of the planet; at Teatro Meridional, the piece “Documentário” (“Documentary”), by SillySeason, in which a rural family tries to record and document the last fifty years of their lives; the show Ciclone (Cyclone), by Leonor Cabral, at Centro Cultural de Belém, about meteorology and the binomial forecast-event concerning the atmospheric phenomena; and the piece “Mas onde está a espada?” (“But where is the sword?”), by Isadora Alves, in which light is the privileged material and which is presented at Parque do Vale do Silêncio.
Kat Válastur
Eye, Lash!

20th and 21st May, at 9 pm and 7 pm, Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império

Kat Válastur interprets several female characters in a landscape consisting of flowers, metal tiles and water. The artist uses her imagination and visual language to give a new life to characters like Marguerite Porete, from the film “Stalker”, by Tarkovsky, or Lady Jane Grey, portrayed in a painting by Delaroche. A performance centred on the feminine, in which oppression, marginalization or abuse are brought onto the stage but do not enter the space filled with transcendence and spirituality created by the artist.

Useful Information

Lisboa is the capital of Portugal and the country's biggest city, located on the estuary of the Tejo river, on the European Atlantic coast. It is continental Europe's westernmost capital. Portugal's official language is Portuguese. Derived from Latin roots, Portuguese is the third most spoken European language in the world, with around 200 million speakers. Around 3 million people live in the Lisboa region, with around 600 thousand living in the capital itself. The Portuguese Constitution allows religious freedom, with various religions being practised in Portugal.

Electric voltage: 230 / 400 volts, on a 50-hertz frequency. The electric sockets adhere to European standards. Blade plugs (US standard) must be used in conjunction with a 230 volts transformer, as well as an adaptor.

In Lisboa winters are mild and summers hot, though moderated by its location near the sea. During spring and autumn there are usually sunny days with mild temperatures.

Local currency and Payments

The Euro is Portugal's official currency, having been introduced in January 2002. 1 Euro is divided into 100 cents. There are coins of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents and 1 and 2 Euros. The bills can be distinguished by their size and colour and have the following face values: 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Euros. In Portugal, payments can be made in cash, bank transfer, cheque, credit cards and debit cards.

EVENTS

Diptych UMBRA | LUMINA

6th and 8th May, at 6:30 pm and at 9 pm, Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império (tram: 15 | busses: 714, 727, 728, 729, 751). Tickets: 15 euros. More information at: ccb.pt

The Centro Cultural de Belém opens its doors to welcome two almost opposite works. On the one hand, Lumina, a show which derives from the need to talk about light, speed and noise. On the other hand, Umbra, which is characterized by darkness, slowness and silence and which departs from the question “what is emptiness?” to create a path to be followed by the audience. The fact that each show takes place at a different time and that the repetition of both events is switched on the second presentation day, raises the difficult question of choosing one or both and the order in which to see them.

LAAF
Lisbon Art and Antiques Fair

Until 8th May, from 3 pm to 9 pm, Cordoaria Nacional de Lisboa, Av. da Índia (buses: 73B, 201, 714, 727, 732, 751 | tram: 15E). Tickets: 12 euros. More information at: apa.pt

Antique dealers, modern and contemporary art come together again at the Portugal Art and Antiques Fair (LAAF) promoted by the Portuguese Antique Dealers Association. Considered one of the most prestigious fairs because of its diversity and of the authenticity of the presented pieces, this edition will have 33 stands. “The LAAF is an important event for the sector, gathering in one place the best the art market has to offer in Portugal”, describes the chairman of the organizing entity, Carlos Bessa Pereira.

Fado

INTANGIBLE HERITAGE OF HUMANITY
The song of Lisboa and the World

Classified as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO since November 2011, Fado is the purest expression of Lisboa’s “soul”. Much more than just a song, Fado is a musical manifestation of feeling Portuguese and a city’s way of life, always accompanied by the solemn and melancholy chords of the Portuguese guitar.

Considered a brand inseparable from the culture and tradition of the Portuguese capital, Fado has been for at least two centuries, part of the city’s heritage that endowed it with soul and voice. But since influences from overseas, and from various cultures which arrived in Lisboa can also be heard in Fado, Lisboa’s song is now deservedly a shared heritage with the world. Inspired from a simple and sentimental language, Fado’s universal character surpasses all barriers and is now enjoyed by millions of fans worldwide. This internationalization of Fado is greatly due to the charisma and the voice of Amália Rodrigues, the most renowned fado singer of all time, who from the 1950’s took Lisboa’s song to the most prestigious venues, from Russia to Japan. More recently, a new generation of singers of this genre has given the song a new vitality, placing it in the circuits of World Music.

The ultimate international recognition of Fado comes with UNESCO’s highest recognition, whose award of the Intangible Heritage of Humanity title makes this a perfect example of how a centuries-old tradition of a city becomes the identity symbol of a people. Therefore, whenever the lights are dimmed in a fado house and someone says “Silence, Fado is about to be sung”, this is not just a ritual that is being performed. It is, as Amália Rodrigues would say, “a strange form of life” that is being renewed.
Fado Houses

Here visitors can experience the whole atmosphere and rituals associated with Lisboa's song and listen to this language of emotions. Set in the historic districts of the city such as Alfama, Bairro Alto, Lapa and Alcântara, there are diverse establishments which host regular performances of fado, with resident artists.

The Miracle of Laughter.
Saint Anthony by Bordalo

Rafael Bordalo Pinheiro is the caricaturist responsible for the creation, in 1875, of the character “zé povinho”, which symbolizes the simple people, the everyman. What this exhibition will show is that this character appears at the time of the creation of the drawing “P’rá cêra de Sant’Antó”, published, on 12th June 1875, in A Lanterna Mágica, his first satirical newspaper. This drawing was the beginning of a long relationship between the artist and the saint. Thus, the exhibition “O Milagre do Riso” is organized in three core areas: “7.º Centenário de Santo António” (7th Centenary of Saint Anthony), “Os Santo Antónios da política” (The Saint Anthonys of politics) and “As Festas de Lisboa” (The Lisboa Festivities), in which the saint from Lisbon is presented by Rafael Bordalo Pinheiro’s humorous eye in graphic works and ceramic pieces.

Daniel Dewar & Grégory Gicquel

In this exhibition, Daniel Dewar and Grégory Gicquel present a world which is rather similar to ours, but with slight differences and distortions. Augmented, fragmented, chipped, molten and even duplicated objects create the idea that they exist in another dimension or in another planet, where the absurd gives way to the ordinary and daily. The artists’ duo, which has worked together since the time they were college students, uses terracotta, wood, stone and textile, both for their artistic productions and to create the utensils they then use to make the objects.
A royal treasure is hidden in this Palace

Anyone who visits Ajuda, in Lisboa, does not remain indifferent to this monument. Considered one of the most important of the decorative arts in Portugal, the Palácio Nacional da Ajuda (Ajuda National Palace) stands out for its grandiosity and magnificence. It has been the subject of patrimony rehabilitation works and, based on a rigorous historic investigation, decorative elements have been restored and environments from the time of D. Luís, the monarch who lived here the longest, have been recreated. Built in the end of the 18th century, little after the earthquake which shook Lisboa, in 1755, the neoclassical-inspired palace was home to some Portuguese kings. Its brightest period was during the reign of D. Luís, between 1838 and 1889, much by influence of Queen D. Maria Pia. During this period, new chambers, new halls and rooms were added to the layout of the Palácio da Ajuda; some examples are the bathrooms, the dining room, the Music Room, the Painting Studio and the Chinese Room, which can still be visited today.

Open to the public every day, the visitors can travel in time to learn something about the style and the art from the 19th century. Starting on the ground floor, the journey begins in the monarchs’ quarters and the Music Room, where several musical instruments, such as the harp and the piano, stand out. In the Blue Room we can find several details in the colour which gives the room its name and, also on this floor, the visit to the Marble and the Billiards Rooms is a must.

On the Noble Floor, the upper floor, there are rooms like the Diplomatic Corps Room, where the details on the chairs and the paintings on the walls stand out, and the Throne Room, where we can find the Portuguese 18th century royal armchairs. Also on this floor we can find the Grand Dining Hall, prepared for banquets with many guests, and private spaces, like the Painting Studio, the Study and the King’s Bedroom.

In spite of having been the official residence of the royal family and today being used for State protocol ceremonies, one of the wings in the Palácio da Ajuda was recently finished. The reason for this is that, among fires and other episodes, a part of it remained unfinished for more than two centuries, exactly 226 years after the laying of the first stone.

This work’s special purpose was to house the new Royal Treasure Museum with the crown jewels, which will open to the public soon.

Thus, the third and fourth floors of the new building are reserved for this extraordinary museum collection, exhibited in a true vault with 72 showcases divided into 11 sections: all together there are around one thousand jewels belonging to the Portuguese crown. The exhibition includes priceless pieces and it is estimated that this is one of the most valuable displays in the world. And which has never been exhibited in full before.

Find out for yourself.
EXHIBITIONS

Alpha Wave Experience

Until 29th May, from Wednesday to Friday, from noon to 8 pm and weekends, from 11 am to 8 pm, Galeria BOA, Rua da Boavista, 73 (buses: 714, 774 | tram: 25E). Tickets: 10 euros, by appointment. More information at: boalab.co

Alpha Wave Experience is a project of an artists' collective and, more than an exhibition, it is an immersive art experience through the sensorial universe. Conceived as a multispatial environment, it combines visual arts, technologies, music, meditation and well-being. This exhibition proposes a journey through the subconscious and invites the audience to travel through the deepest thoughts and dreams. The most attractive item of the showing is the Dreamachine, a light device which makes it possible to look at this “machine of dreams” with one’s eyes closed and still see colours, patterns and geometric shapes.

Gérard Fromanger

O Esplendor

Until 29th May, every day, from 10 am to 6:30 pm, Museu Coleção Berardo, Praça do Império (train: Cascais line, Belém station | buses: 729, 714, 727, 728, 751 | tram: 15). Tickets: from Sunday to Friday, 5 euros; Saturday, free entry. More information at: museuberardo.pt

The artist Gérard Fromanger presents a series of works which mark his artistic course. More than 60 paintings which belong to 26 different periods. Fromanger was a big explorer of the world around him and each artistic period, each doubt, rupture, technique and recomposition correspond to a logic characterized by a biographic time when his relationship with actuality and with history is always present. The artist’s work merges with the Pop Art movement, especially due to the preference for non-modulated colours and to the constant rejection of the categorical form of artistic convention.
Last Folio

Until 29th May, every day, from 10:00 to 18:30, Museu Coleção Berardo, Praça do Império (train: Cascais line, Belém station | buses: 729, 714, 727, 728, 751| tram: 15). Tickets: from Sunday to Friday, 5 euros; Saturday, free entry. More information at: museuberardo.pt

Yuri Dojc’s and Katya Krausova’s exhibition reveals images of what is left of the last historic testimony in the life of a people. A story interrupted by the Jews’ deportation to concentration camps in 1942. Ruins of schools, synagogue wreckage, pieces left from books and objects can be found in this exhibition, which also includes a series of Holocaust survivors’ portraits and a film which expose the signs of the destruction of Jewish culture caused by the nazis.

Beber a água do Lilau

The expression goes "Whoever drinks from Lilau’s water will never forget Macau" and this exhibition is as much a visit to the collection of the artist Nuno Barreto as a journey through the images he took, both from the people and from the places of the Macanese territory. Between acrylics, gouaches, drawing books, drafts, notes, magazines, books, catalogues and photographs, the oriental city has left such a mark in the artist, that he even claims “it entered his blood never to leave it again".

Vhils, artistic name of Alexandre Farto, performs several works of public art a bit all over the world. Prisma, contrary to his usual works, is an exhibition which resorts exclusively to video and which represents the daily life in nine metropolises: Mexico City, Cincinnati, Hong Kong, Lisboa, Los Angeles, Macau, Paris, Beijing and Shanghai. This is a large-scale installation which provides and immersive experience into a reality of trivial environments and in which the identity of their inhabitants is lost by being manipulated and distorted with space, scale and lighting effects. However, the essence of the spaces can be recovered through critical distancing, in an exercise of contemplation, introspection and reflection.

In 30 modules and four big themes, the visitors will be able to experiment present and future activities with and without access to this essential asset, in order to draw everyone’s attention to the importance of saving and using it efficiently.

The Museu de Lisboa presents a retrospective of last century’s 20s in the exhibition “The Roaring ‘20s in Lisboa”. Even today, the decade of 1920 is still remembered as a period of transformation in customs and mentalities. Lisboa was not excluded from this movement: modernity, social and individual affirmation were also experienced in the Portuguese capital. In spite of the political and economic instability of the time, Lisboa followed some trends, spreading the novelties and extravagances which arrived through the press, literature, radio and cinema. Thus, this exhibition transports us to that same time period through personal stories and experiences.
“Moldada na Escuridão” is an exhibition which starts from an investigation by Hugo Canoilas into the sea beds. Having the bottom of the sea and the several aquatic environments as the starting point, the author presents an immersive installation, in which the paintings and sculptures are also protagonists of those habitats. Among colours, textures and a mixture of reality and art, the spectator observes real metamorphoses between the real and the imaginary.
