With summer already settled in, the festival by the Ericeira sea will again set the stage for hip-hop, surf, skate, music and dance. The Sumol Summer Fest presents several North-American talents, such as Young Thug, Joey Bada$$, Vic Mensa, Fat Joe, and many names from the national scene, such as Cíntia, Piruka, T-Rex or Nenny. Besides enjoying the music, the festivalgoers have the chance to surf in Europe’s first world surfing reserve and to make the most of the sun by laying out a towel and having a good time at the beaches.
With the pronouncement of this being “the best comeback ever” and after two years of interruption due to pandemic restrictions, NOS ALIVE opens the doors again to a festival full of music. Florence + The Machine, Metallica, Imagine Dragons, Acid Arab Live, Modest Mouse, Balthazar, Da Wease, Glass Animals, Nilüfer Yanya, Jungle, Clairo, Jorja Smith, Celeste, Stromae, Batida B2B Branko, EU.CLIDES, Dino D’ Santiago, Mallu Magalhães, Moulinex Live, Os Quatro e Meia are some of the expected artists. “The best return ever” will also bring smiles and positive energy in the space dedicated to the art of laughter, with Herman José, Salvador Martinha, Inês Aires Pereira, Tio Gel, among many others, on the comedy stage, the only one of its kind in Portugal, which intends to be a showcase of diversity in this type of show.
EDP Cool Jazz

2nd, 10th, 21st, 23rd, 27th, 28th, 30th July, from 7 pm, Hipódromo Manuel Possolo, Praceta Domingos D’Avilez and Av. da República (train: Cascais line, station: Cascais | bus: 27). Tickets: from 35 to 75 euros.

More information at: edpcooljazz.com

Music, nature and heritage: that is how we can define the EDP Cool Jazz festival. Located next to the Cascais Museum District, where we can find the Paula Rego Museum and the Cascais Cultural Centre, this festival is held in a harmonious space, with a strong connection to culture and to the historical heritage. John Legend, Paul Anka, Yann Tiersen, Miguel Araújo, Diana Krall, Jordan Rakei, Moses Boyd and Jorge Ben Jor are some of the artists who will go on stage over seven days filled with music of different styles.
The Jardins do Marquês festival brings excitement back to the Oeiras summer nights. In this second edition, it promises to keep the momentum of the first year, adding some novelties. The Nortada stage is one of them: with two concerts per session, one opening each night and another between two concerts on the main stage, this new space will allow the audience to see four shows each day at the festival. Both on the main and on the Nortada stage, the line-up is a must with names such as Carminho, Jorge Drexler, Gilsons, Gregory Porter, José Cid and his Acid Jazz Project, Elas e o Jazz, Elisa Rodrigues, Roda de Dois or Taxi.

Useful Information

Lisboa is the capital of Portugal and the country’s biggest city, located on the estuary of the Tejo river, on the European Atlantic coast. It is continental Europe's westernmost capital. Portugal's official language is Portuguese. Derived from Latin roots, Portuguese is the third most spoken European language in the world, with around 200 million speakers. Around 3 million people live in the Lisboa region, with around 600 thousand living in the capital itself. The Portuguese Constitution allows religious freedom, with various religions being practised in Portugal.

Electric voltage: 230 / 400 volts, on a 50-hertz frequency. The electric sockets adhere to European standards. Blade plugs (US standard) must be used in conjunction with a 230 volts transformer, as well as an adaptor.

In Lisboa winters are mild and summers hot, though moderated by its location near the sea. During spring and autumn there are usually sunny days with mild temperatures.

Local currency and Payments

The Euro is Portugal’s official currency, having been introduced in January 2002. 1 Euro is divided into 100 cents. There are coins of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents and 1 and 2 Euros. The bills can be distinguished by their size and colour and have the following face values: 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Euros. In Portugal, payments can be made in cash, bank transfer, cheque, credit cards and debit cards.

Jazz im Goethe-Garten

6th, 7th, 13th, 14th, 15th July, at 7 pm, Goethe-Institut Portugal, Campo dos Mártires da Pátria, 37 (buses: 730, 723, 760, 767). Tickets: 7 euros, general; 5 euros, students and seniors. More information at: goethe.de

Jazz is back in the garden of the Goethe-Institut. Prepared to fill Lisboa with different rhythms and sounds, this year the festival brings together musicians coming from Portugal, Austria, Italy, Switzerland and Germany. With the aim of presenting new tendencies of contemporary jazz as well as experimental and improvised music, it will include five proposals of this music style developed in Europe. As we have come to expect, it opens with a Portuguese representation and ends with a German one. Thus, Garuda Trio, composed of the saxophonist from Amsterdam Hugo Costa, the double bassist Hernâni Faustino and the drummer João Valinho, will be performing in the opening concert, which will end with double bassist Carlos Bico’s trio. Carlos Bico has been living in Germany for more than 20 years and has joined DJ Illvibe’s and saxophonist’s Daniel Erdmann turntablist duo.

Festival dos Capuchos

Until 10th July, Fridays and Saturdays, at 9:30 pm, Sundays, from 6 pm, Convento dos Capuchos, Caparica (train: departure from Roma-Areeiro to Pragal and bus 124 to Capuchos). Tickets: 10 euros. More information at: festivalcapuchos.com

In July, Almada has more pace. The Capuchos Music Festival brings a very special program. Between cycles of conversations and classical music concerts, the festival will feature several national and international references. The highlight of this edition is for the Vienna Chamber Orchestra and for the presence of several renowned musicians with several international awards. Diana Tishchenko, Anna Tsybuleva, Victor Julien-Laferrière are some of the musicians taking the stage at the Convento dos Capuchos. The national scene is represented by the Gulbenkian Orchestra and the traditional Mirandese music group Galandum Galundaina, which will present a concert dedicated to the music of Terras de Miranda and Nordeste Transmontano.

Fado

INTANGIBLE HERITAGE OF HUMANITY
The song of Lisboa and the World

Classified as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO since November 2011, Fado is the purest expression of Lisboa’s “soul”. Much more than just a song, Fado is a musical manifestation of feeling Portuguese and a city’s way of life, always accompanied by the solemn and melancholy chords of the Portuguese guitar.

Considered a brand inseparable from the culture and tradition of the Portuguese capital, Fado has been for at least two centuries, part of the city's heritage that endowed it with soul and voice. But since influences from overseas, and from various cultures which arrived in Lisboa can also be heard in Fado, Lisboa's song is now deservedly a shared heritage with the world. Inspired from a simple and sentimental language, Fado's universal character surpasses all barriers and is now enjoyed by millions of fans worldwide. This internationalization of Fado is greatly due to the charisma and the voice of Amália Rodrigues, the most renowned fado singer of all time, who from the 1950's took Lisboa's song to the most prestigious venues, from Russia to Japan. More recently, a new generation of singers of this genre has given the song a new vitality, placing it in the circuits of World Music.

The ultimate international recognition of Fado comes with UNESCO’s highest recognition, whose award of the Intangible Heritage of Humanity title makes this a perfect example of how a centuries-old tradition of a city becomes the identity symbol of a people. Therefore, whenever the lights are dimmed in a fado house and someone says "Silence, Fado is about to be sung", this is not just a ritual that is being performed. It is, as Amália Rodrigues would say, "a strange form of life" that is being renewed.

Since then he has travelled the stages of the world with his Christian McBride trio. He has already been called one of the future rising jazz stars by Jet Magazine and Vanity Fair. More recently, with his latest album, “Be Water”, Christian Sands is inspired by tranquillity and the power of water, echoing the fluidity and malleability. Now he is back in Lisboa for another rhythm-filled concert.

Alceu Valença

In a ninety minute long concert, the artist, who embraces his North-eastern identity and is celebrating his 45 year long career, will go on a journey through his greatest hits. “Tropicana”, “Como Dois Animais”, “Belle de Jour”, “Girassol”, “Coração Bobo”, “Anunciação” are some of his best known songs and just some of the ones which will be remembered. Falaise is the name of the show by the company Baro d’evel. With darkness as the starting point, the performance for eight artists, pigeons, contemporary circus, voice and music is directed by Camille Decourtye and Blaï Mateu Trias. It transports the audience into a cave, where the only thing we see is pitch dark. Voice and sound are the only ways to advance in the dark. Shouts, songs and touch are necessary to continue the journey through the tunnel of time. Here, animals and humans try to survive and advance in space. They join as a herd or a family and by continuing the journey, in the breaches left by a world in ruins, they invent something new for a different end of the world.

Swan Lake

19th July, at 9:30 pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Avenida). Tickets: from 30 to 40 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

It is true that we often associate the great ballets, like Swan Lake, to Russian dance companies, but it is time for the same story to be performed by the Ukrainian Classical Ballet. One of the most famous and know stories of all time is now performed by more than 30 Ukrainian dancers, who express the story of the impossible love between a prince and a swan girl. A timeless classic of Pyotr Tchaikovsky’s repertoire, which elevates dance and includes one of the best pas de deux in classical ballet.
What if the stage of a dance performance was on air? Have you ever watched a suspension show? Matière Noire and Clairière Urbaine, in English “Black Matter” and “Urban Clarity”, proposes exactly this experience. These are two vertical dance shows, where the dancers present their choreography in suspension. In the first performance, a play of lights is created, and the shadow of the dancers’ movements is part of the body narrative, allowing the audience different interpretations of the performance that integrates visual perception and movement. In the second performance, the artists merge with the architecture of the space, the dialogue between the body and the urban landscape is established. In this performance, the dancers use the walls and the structure built for the suspension as a stage, providing a new perspective of Pilar 7, the 25 de Abril bridge and the surrounding buildings.

Matière Noire and Clairière Urbaine

15th July, at 9:30 pm, Centro Champalimaud, Av. Brasilia (buses: 79B, 729 | tram: 15E); 15th and 16th July, at 6:30 pm, and 17th July, at 12 am, Pilar 7, Ponte 25 de Abril, Av. da India (buses: 73B, 201, 714, 720, 727, 732, 756 | tram: 15E). Getting to know Lisboa from the Tejo

The summer sun and heat call for trips and activities involving water, be it from the river or from the sea. By this time, Lisboa reaches the perfect and inviting temperature to explore the city, the river and its banks.

The best way to get to know the Tejo is to embrace the adventure of navigating it. For that purpose, the recently rehabilitated Estação Fluvial Sul e Sueste establishes itself as the new starting point for several river tours which turn out to be a true discovery of the city’s bank. Here it is possible to go, for example, on a romantic tour aboard a catraio, a small sailboat formerly used for fishing and now converted for tours; on a family experience or a party with friends, on a yacht, or on a simple boat tour in the middle of the morning to get to know the banks of the capital from the river.

There are several reasons for the curious to go aboard the different vessels available. There are 23 types of different boats and a series of activities to experience in order to discover the Tejo. From the station it is possible to go on a river cruise, which can consist of a two hour itinerary between Terreiro do Paço and Alcântara or of a trip to discover Lisboa from the waterline. The tours may simply be intended to contemplate the monuments and landscapes, such as the Torre de Belém, the Padrão de Descobrimentos, the Ponte 25 de Abril, the Cristo Rei, the Museu da Eletricidade and the Museu de Arte, Arquitetura e Tecnologia, but they may also be a means of getting to these equipments. Using the taxi boat and Hop-on Hop-off system, it is possible to stop and disembark at several points of interest, explore the equipments and go back to the river to continue the trip or go back to the starting point.

But tours aboard modern vessels are not the only way to explore the Tejo; in fact, there are boats for every taste. From the Doca da Marinha, the infrastructure next to the river station, which has also been the subject of upgrading interventions, it is possible to go on a tour aboard older models, such as dinghies, frigates, barges, cangueiros, catraios and varinos. Here tradition takes centre stage and offers a series of unique experiences, to engrave the image of Lisboa forever in one’s memory. These last century’s conventional boats, almost considered extinct, were saved and restored by families with ties to the river and its professions and were now given a new life and purpose.

This way it is now possible to go on river tour aboard a classical sailboat from the 60s, to watch the sunset on a small, typical boat, having the hills of Lisboa for background or also to float on a varino, a traditional vessel from Lisboa, which in the last century was used to transport goods.

Lisboa has a lot to discover from the river. Come discover by yourself.
Traverser la Nuit

Until 29th August, from Wednesday to Monday, from 11am to 7pm, MAAT – Museu de Arte, Arquitetura e Tecnologia, Av. Brasília (train: Cascais line, Belém station | buses: 728, 714, 727, 729, 751 | tram: 15). Tickets: general, 5 euros; students and seniors, 3 euros. More information at: maat.pt

“Traverser la Nuit” reveals a comprehensive view on the personal collection of Antoine de Galbert, an artist who excels in the connection between contemporary art, popular arts and outsider art. The night theme is inspired by the place and the history of the exhibition space: Central Tejo. Built in the beginning of the 20th century to supply Lisboa and its surroundings with electricity, the building is a true testimony to the transformation of the beginning of the century, which completely changed the relation the human beings have with the night. In this exhibition, the visitors can go through the night period, from dusk to dawn, passing through several stages.

Interferences

Emerging Urban Cultures

Until 5th September, from Wednesday to Monday, from 11 am to 7 pm, MAAT – Museu de Arte, Arquitetura e Tecnologia, Av. Brasília (train: Cascais line, Belém station | buses: 728, 714, 727, 729, 751 | tram: 15). Tickets: general, 5 euros; students and seniors, 3 euros. More information at: maat.pt

Lisboa is characterized, among several factors, by its cultural diversity. And the exhibition “Interferências” intends to affirm exactly that characteristic. MAAT is thus transformed into a stage of stories, which give visibility and create a dialogue between works from contemporary artists, who use the streets as an expression context, and works from private, more institutional collections. In a showing which presents pieces from the Centro de Arte Moderna Gulbenkian collection as well as from the Archives of RTP and also from several artists, such as Filipa Bossuet, Petra Preta, ±maismenos±, Onun Trigueiros, the museum privileges the different narrative itineraries, becoming a space for criticism and, at the same time, a meeting place for several communities.
Until September, from Tuesday to Friday, from 10am to 6pm, last entry at 5:30pm, weekends, from 10am to 7pm, last entry at 6:30pm, Pavilhão do Conhecimento, Centro Ciência Viva, Largo José Mariano Gago (metro: Oriente | buses: 400, 705, 708, 725, 728, 744, 750, 759, 782 e 794). Tickets: 10 euros, general, youngsters up to 17 years of age, 8 euros, seniors, 7 euros. More information at: pavconhecimento.pt

Água – uma exposição sem filtro

In the world there are still at least two million people who have no access to potable water. But “Água – uma exposição sem filtro” does not intend to be a serious or pessimistic exhibition. Quite the contrary: in a positive and conscious tone, this exhibition, which is mainly dedicated to the younger ones, explores the different ways to use water. In 30 modules and four big themes, the visitors will be able to experiment present and future activities with and without access to this essential asset, in order to draw everyone’s attention to the importance of saving and using it efficiently.
Prisma

Vhils

Until 5th September, from Wednesday to Monday, from 11 am to 7 pm, MAAT – Museu de Arte, Arquitetura e Tecnologia, Av. Brasília (train: Cascais line, Belém station | buses: 728, 714, 727, 729, 751 | tram: 15). Tickets: general, 5 euros; students and seniors, 3 euros. More information at: maat.pt

Vhils, artistic name of Alexandre Farto, performs several works of public art a bit all over the world. Prisma, contrary to his usual works, is an exhibition which resorts exclusively to video and which represents the daily life in nine metropolises: Mexico City, Cincinnati, Hong Kong, Lisboa, Los Angeles, Macau, Paris, Beijing and Shanghai. This is a large-scale installation which provides and immersive experience into a reality of trivial environments and in which the identity of their inhabitants is lost by being manipulated and distorted with space, scale and lighting effects. However, the essence of the spaces can be recovered through critical distancing, in an exercise of contemplation, introspection and reflection.

To celebrate the 125 years of the artist’s Maria Helena Vieira da Silva birth, the artist Robert Wiley prepared the exhibition “Um hóspede curioso”. Starting from an internal dialogue and from the relationship he establishes with the physical space and the historical record of Vieira da Silva’s production, Robert Wiley created artistic objects. He used different materials which were at the Atelier-House and in the garden, including glass. Although the showing was thought specifically for this occasion, the images which accompany the artistic production allow the visitors to have an idea of the objects, systems and situations which Wiley is currently exploring.

The exhibition “Jogos Cruzados. Viagens entre Oriente e Ocidente” intends to help people understand how games became a mirror of World History, as well as to be a reflection of the relations established between Europe and Asia since the 1500s. Starting from one of the world’s biggest private board games collections, this showing reveals a little bit about the Asian production for the European market, which took place from the 16th century until the middle of the 19th century, as well as the presence of western games in the east.

As the name lets us guess, the ceramic pieces in this showing are made of bones. Teresa Segurado Pavão, the artist and author of the 25 pieces displayed at the High Choir of the old Madre de Deus Convent, presents works in pure white clay and with transparent glass details which integrate bones gathered in the field and on the beach and attached to some pieces with silver elements. The connection of the materials results in objects wrapped in great spirituality, entering a context of perfect harmony with the baroque space they are set in.

The Museu de Lisboa presents a retrospective of last century’s 20s in the exhibition “The Roaring ‘20s in Lisboa”. Even today, the decade of 1920 is still remembered as a period of transformation in customs and mentalities. Lisboa was not excluded from this movement: modernity, social and individual affirmation were also experienced in the Portuguese capital. In spite of the political and economic instability of the time, Lisboa followed some trends, spreading the novelties and extravagances which arrived through the press, literature, radio and cinema. Thus, this exhibition transports us to that same time period through personal stories and experiences.
