NEW YEAR'S CONCERTS
An epic story that ends at the table.
Concerto de Ano Novo

Do Clássico ao Popular

6th January; at 7:30 pm; Museu do Oriente, Av. Brasília, Doca de Alcântara

“Do Clássico ao Popular” features traditional music to toast the new year. On stage will be David Silva, accompanied by the transverse flute, Leonor Fleming on the viola and the harpist Beatriz Cortesão, a trio of young musicians emerging in the national and international panorama gathered for the first time on stage to give rhythm to classic works, in a recital that drinks inspiration of the famous New Year concerts of the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra. In this concert, waltzes and polkas give way to traditional music that is interspersed with adaptations of works by Debussy, Takemitsu and Piazzolla for transverse flute, viola and harp formations.
The Strauss Festival Orchestra and the Strauss Festival Ballet Ensemble welcome 2023 with a concert which is inspired by the traditional musical events celebrated in Vienna. The Great New Year’s Concert presents a selection of Strauss’ waltzes, polkas and marches. The performance will include tunes such as ‘Napoleon’, ‘Flower Festival’, ‘Klipp Klapp’, ‘Emperor Waltz’ or ‘Champagne Polka’. The most famous of all his waltzes, ‘Blue Danube’, will not be missing. At the end of the night, the finale will bring the already traditional ‘Radetzky March’, which will close the concert while the audience claps along.
Árias e Coros de Ópera

10th January, at 9:30 pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Restauradores). Tickets: from 35 to 43 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

To democratize and popularize the opera, the Grande Orquestra Sinfônica and its Choir will give a concert, which is a tribute to this musical style. On stage will be some of the best fragments of the grand operas by Verdi. The programme will focus on works which immortalized historical moments, from Aida’s Triumphal March, when the victorious troops return from battle, to Il Trovatore’s happy gipsy choir or Va Pensiero, from Nabucco, converted into the symbol of an Italy unified under the Habsburgs. The concert will also include fragments and parts of other big opera titles, such as Don Giovanni and La Traviata.

Orquestra POP Portuguesa

14th January; at 9 pm; Altice Arena, Parque das Nações, (metro: Oriente | buses: 26B, 208, 210, 705, 708, 725, 728, 744, 759, 782 | train: Oriente). Tickets: from 20 to 35 euros. More information at: arena.altice.pt

New year, new concert, new debut. The Orquestra POP Portuguesa goes on stage at Altice Arena to present ‘Great Pop Hits’. The show, directed by conductor Ulf Wadenbrandt, brings together 42 musicians, who will sing and interpret iconic pop songs by famous bands, such as Queen or The Beatles. With the aim of demystifying the idea that an orchestra only plays classical music, the group of musicians and the lead vocals Catarina Clau and Ricardo Soler will also present Portuguese music, namely songs by the band Xutos & Pontapés.
Marvel DC
Hollywood Symphony Orchestra

21st January; at 9:30 pm; Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Restauradores). Tickets: from 37 to 45 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

The Hollywood Symphony Orchestra presents a show consisting exclusively of tunes which gave life to Marvel’s films. If composers like Patrick Doyle, Brian Tyler, Alan Silvestri, James Newton Howard, John Williams and Hans Zimmer created musical scores to sharpen our senses and make us dive into worlds of unlimited imagination, the orchestra made up of 75 musicians directed by John Scott promises a journey through the adventures of Captain America, Thor, Iron Man, Doctor Strange, Wonder Woman, Flash and even the confrontation between Batman and Superman.

Metamito

21st January; at 9 pm; Centro Cultural da Malaposta, Rua de Angola (metro: Senhor Roubado | buses: 736, 206). Tickets: 12 euros. More information at: malaposta.pt

‘Vem despertar do Sono e lembiar que o Sonho é a Realidade’ (‘Come wake up from Sleep and remember that the Dream is Reality’), is the first verse of Metamito’s first record. Metamito is the artistic name of António Miguel, who is releasing his first long-playing album. The record, which is described as a visit to Metamito’s subconsciousness, is made up of nine songs, which take us on spiritual and psychedelic journeys. The mysteries of life and of being are the presented subjects, in a style which lies between psych-pop and psych-folk, where we can hear classical and Portuguese guitars, as well as pianos and electronic beats.

Useful Information

Lisboa is the capital of Portugal and the country’s biggest city, located on the estuary of the Tejo river, on the European Atlantic coast. It is continental Europe’s westernmost capital. Portugal’s official language is Portuguese. Derived from Latin roots, Portuguese is the third most spoken European language in the world, with around 200 million speakers. Around 3 million people live in the Lisboa region, with around 600 thousand living in the capital itself. The Portuguese Constitution allows religious freedom, with various religions being practised in Portugal.

Electric voltage: 230 / 400 volts, on a 50-hertz frequency. The electric sockets adhere to European standards. Blade plugs (US standard) must be used in conjunction with a 230 volts transformer, as well as an adaptor.

In Lisboa winters are mild and summers hot, though moderated by its location near the sea. During spring and autumn there are usually sunny days with mild temperatures.

Local currency and Payments

The Euro is Portugal's official currency, having been introduced in January 2002. 1 Euro is divided into 100 cents. There are coins of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents and 1 and 2 Euros. The bills can be distinguished by their size and colour and have the following face values: 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Euros. In Portugal, payments can be made in cash, bank transfer, cheque, credit cards and debit cards.

Tax Free

Those who live outside the EU can benefit from VAT exemption in Portugal if they make purchases worth at least 50 euros and only for private use. For this purpose, you must present an identification document (passport or other official) to the seller, who will provide proof of the purchase registration. The process is completed when leaving the country, through an electronic terminal in the customs area of the airport, to certify the export of the goods acquired in Portugal and to know whether or not is entitled to a VAT refund.

Paraíso
Ópera

27th January; at 8 pm; Grande Auditório do Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império (tram: 15 | buses: 714, 727, 728, 729, 751). Tickets: from 21 to 35 euros. More information at: ccb.pt

The opera Paraíso results from the invitation addressed by the Centro Cultural de Belém to composer Nuno da Rocha. More than an original work and an absolute debut, this show will open the celebrations of the 30th anniversary of the cultural venue. The proposal is made as a continuation of the work Inferno, which the composer premiered in 2020, and intends to bring together on stage different artistic typologies of music and dance. The performance has the collaboration of conductor Pedro Neves and the artistic direction of Marcos Morau, the founder of the Catalan dance company La Veronal.

Fado

INTANGIBLE HERITAGE OF HUMANITY
The song of Lisboa and the World

Classified as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO since November 2011, Fado is the purest expression of Lisboa’s “soul”. Much more than just a song, Fado is a musical manifestation of feeling Portuguese and a city’s way of life, always accompanied by the solemn and melancholy chords of the Portuguese guitar.

Considered a brand inseparable from the culture and tradition of the Portuguese capital, Fado has been for at least two centuries, part of the city’s heritage that endowed it with soul and voice. But since influences from overseas, and from various cultures which arrived in Lisboa can also be heard in Fado, Lisboa’s song is now deservedly a shared heritage with the world. Inspired from a simple and sentimental language, Fado’s universal character surpasses all barriers and is now enjoyed by millions of fans worldwide. This internationalization of Fado is greatly due to the charisma and the voice of Amália Rodrigues, the most renowned fado singer of all time, who from the 1950’s took Lisboa’s song to the most prestigious venues, from Russia to Japan. More recently, a new generation of singers of this genre has given the song a new vitality, placing it in the circuits of World Music.

The ultimate international recognition of Fado comes with UNESCO’s highest recognition, whose award of the Intangible Heritage of Humanity title makes this a perfect example of how a centuries-old tradition of a city becomes the identity symbol of a people. Therefore, whenever the lights are dimmed in a fado house and someone says “Silence, Fado is about to be sung”, this is not just a ritual that is being performed. It is, as Amália Rodrigues would say, “a strange form of life” that is being renewed.
Fado Houses
Here visitors can experience the whole atmosphere and rituals associated with Lisboa's song and listen to this language of emotions. Set in the historic districts of the city such as Alfama, Bairro Alto, Lapa and Alcântara, there are diverse establishments which host regular performances of fado, with resident artists.

Almost celebrating 60 years since her debut, Tina Turner’s voice and energy continue to thrill the fans all over the world. In a concert which is a tribute to one of rock and roll’s queens, Karin Bello revisits the biggest hits of the artist’s career. With a strong voice, endless energy and a combination of soul and rock, the North-American artist will sing unforgettable songs from Tina Turner’s more than 50-year long career: from What’s Love Got to Do with It and We Don’t Need Another Hero to Proud Mary, Private Dancer, the mythical River Deep - Mountain High and, naturally, The Best.
Michael Bublé is on his world Higher Tour. His 6th world tour brings him to Portugal again, for a concert in one of Lisboa's biggest concert halls. Winner of several Grammys and Juno awards, Michael Bublé is described by the critics as a world star and one of the most successful singers of his generation. The concert will include his original songs, which have already become classics, as well as other ballads, mixed with laughter and dancing.

The Nutcracker, performed by the Ukrainian Classical Ballet goes on stage at Coliseu de Lisboa. The dancers, directed by choreographer Natalia Kazatska, present a creative production of the story of the toy, which, on Christmas Eve, comes to life and leads the audience through and enchanted world full of characters who are sometimes evil and sometimes charming. The story, which celebrates the capacity to dream and fills the room with romance and fantasy, is performed in a rigorous and classical production, which respects the tradition and the essence of the purest classical ballet. The stage is filled with colorful costumes and decorations, in harmony with the choreographies.

Lago dos Cisnes

30th January, at 9:30 pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Restauradores). Tickets: from 35 to 43 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

The story of love, betrayal and triumph of good over evil presents itself in the Swan Lake ballet, performed by the dancers of the Ukrainian Classical Ballet and directed by Natalia Kazatska. The story of the impossible love between a prince and a swan girl is already considered to be a great classic of the dance repertoire. The ballet requires dexterity and a high technical quality in the interpretation of the characters, as well as a high degree of drama in the interpretation of the lead dancer. With a romantic set and a model choreography, this production brings the beauty and the drama of the authentic ballet on stage.
What if Stravinsky’s work were performed in light of the technological era? That is exactly what the Vortice Dance Company and Temporada Darcos propose, in a show created by choreographers Cláudia Martins and Rafael Carriço and with musical direction by Nuno Côrte-Real. On stage, dance, videography, video mapping and music are blended to create a unique sensory experience. In an atmosphere created by the Orquestra Clássica do Centro, which brings rhythm to the musical work, the action unfolds in a direct analogy to the speed of the springs of today, where the dance of the final sacrifice is multiplied in time and space. The Rite of Spring ritualizes the fears, wills, desires and bodies, in an intense play of light, dance, music and image.
The scariest characters break through the screen and come to life in the movie theatre. Cinema Medo is an original idea by Michel Simeão which is co-produced by Project Casa Assombrada and which describes itself as an immersive theatre experience. It begins with the presentation of an original horror short film, which characters break through the screen and materialize as the audience goes through different forbidden and labyrinthic areas of the theatre. The viewers assume the role of players and compete against each other in a dynamic between the unknown, the terrifying characters and the fear. The winners will have the chance to visit a secret room, where Censorship used to cut films and Salazar himself may have discreetly seen some movies.
Frida Kahlo, the Immersive Biography

Until 31st December; from Tuesday to Sunday, between 5 pm and 8 pm; Reservatório da Mãe D’Água das Amoreiras, Praça das Amoreiras (metro: Rato | buses: 202, 758, 774, 713 | tram: 24). Tickets: 15 euros, general.

Frida Kahlo, the Immersive Biography is more than an exhibition; it is the combination of physical and digital environments which become an immersive and emotional journey through the life of one of the most influential artists of all time. In this 360º multimedia show, there are virtual reality experiences and video mapping in sculptures and holographic animations. The showing is divided in two moments. First, the visitors have the opportunity to go through different artistic installations, among which we can find historical photographs and original films. The second moment is characterized by the 360º audio-visual projection about Frida Kahlo’s personal life.
The author of iconic pictures like ‘the Afghan girl’, Steve McCurry, is in Lisboa with the exhibition ICONS, a showing with more than 100 large format pictures and which is characterized by being one of the more complete retrospectives of his career. Widely recognized and honoured with some of the most prestigious awards of the field, including the Robert Capa Gold Medal and the National Press Photographers Award, the photographer captures conflict scenarios, endangered cultures, ancient traditions and contemporary culture.
From the altar to the street
Saint Anthony in the ceramics of Delfim Manuel

Until 29th January; from Tuesday to Sunday; from 10 am to 6 pm, last entry at 5:30 pm; Museu de Santo António, Largo de Santo António da Sé, 22 (metro: Baixa-Chiado, Terreiro do Paço | buses: 714, 732, 736, 737, 760 | trams: 12E, 28E). Tickets: 3 euros. More information at: museudelisboa.pt

Delfim Manuel, a Portuguese ceramist with several recognitions and national awards, dedicates an exhibition to the saint from the city of Lisboa. The artist exhibits 13 pieces which were exclusively created for this showing. The craftsman stands out for the way in which he handles the clay and the expertise and gentleness he puts into the pieces he creates. Every year he creates a new image dedicated to the saint, which he produces in small numbered series. And in the exhibition ‘Do altar para a rua’, besides the new pieces, it is possible to see more than 20 others which were created since 1996.

The Masks of the Body

Until 10th February; from Tuesday to Friday; from 2 pm to 6:30 pm; Saturdays and Sundays; from 10 am to 2 pm; Lisboa, MOVART Gallery, Rua João Penha (metro: Rato | buses: 706, 709, 774). Free entry. More information at: gallery@movart.co.ao

‘As Máscaras do Corpo’ is an exhibition with brings together a series of works from the MOVART gallery’s collection. The different artists represent the body through an association of reflections on the different modalities of corporeality. The mask may be connected to the identity issue, to a way of representation created in a theatrical or psychological context, but it can also represent the externalization towards the other, as a concealment of experiences. The selection of works by different artists occupies the exterior and interior space of the gallery, revealing different artistic proposals, which move between diverse memories and different ways of expression.
Let’s go shopping in Lisboa

The best month to go shopping? January. The best destination for that purpose? Lisboa. Every reason is a good reason to go for a walk and the first purchases may be one more good reason to discover the corners of the capital. With some showcases still displaying the festive spirit and others predicting the trends for 2023, the invitation to go in is always guaranteed. And if it is cold, the winter sun quickly makes the walk nicer and more inviting.

Besides the traditional commerce, of which various street shops are good examples, Lisboa has modern shopping centres, such as the Amoreiras Shopping Center, the Centro Comercial Colombo, the Vasco da Gama and also the Freeport Lisboa Fashion Outlet. One of the first to open in Lisboa was the Amoreiras Shopping Center. With its opening in 1985, a new concept was born, namely the one of ‘a city within a
The irreverence of its design and its postmodern architecture make it one of the most iconic commercial spaces. The colourful towers are impossible to miss and besides the more than 200 shops, in areas such as fashion, interior design, culture, recreation, food, health and beauty, there is also a viewpoint with a 360º view over Lisboa. A space which is a must for residents and tourists.

A few years after the opening in Amoreiras, another shopping centre was built in Carnide, opposite an emblematic football stadium of the city. Nowadays it is one of the biggest shopping centres in the Iberian Peninsula. With more than 300 shops in the most various areas, the Centro Comercial Colombo honours the explorer who was responsible for the discovery of North America. Both the interior design and the architecture of the space refer to the 16th century, a golden period in Portuguese History, with the inner streets bearing names such as Avenida dos Descobrimentos (Discoveries Avenue) and Praça Trópico de Câncer (Tropic of Cancer Square).

In the same tribute spirit, in the eastern part of the city and one of the more modern areas of Lisboa, Parque das Nações, we can find the Centro Comercial Vasco da Gama. This space is named after the explorer who discovered the most important eastern route of the Portuguese international trade of the time, the sea route to India. Its architecture resembles a caravel, with the residential and office buildings looking like sails and the interior decorated with sea motives. It is a short distance away from the metro, train and bus stations and even from the airport, thus being a place where hundreds of different people go by every day. Besides the diversity in the product offer, it also has a series of terraces with a panoramic view over the Tejo.

Heading south, passing the Vasco da Gama bridge, the longest bridge in the European Union, the Freeport Lisboa Fashion Outlet is another option for a day of shopping. In a nice environment, with a series of different services, as well as leisure, resting and restaurant areas, the shops are arranged in open air galleries, providing a unique experience.

Between modern and sophisticated spaces, both interior and outdoor, Lisboa is the perfect setting for a day of shopping. Find out for yourself.
In the Theatre of Emotions
José Emídio

‘No Teatro das Emoções’ is the name of the exhibition which celebrates 40 years since the first solo showing by the artist José Emídio. Here we will find sets of works in different media, among which is an unprecedented series of six paintings. The artist characterizes his works through the representation of figures which are crucial to the representation of the space and the surroundings. Among oil paintings, carpets and ceramics, the used colours stand out, establishing themselves as essential to the narrative structure.

EXIST/RESIST

Until 6th March; from Wednesday to Monday; from noon to 6 pm; MAAT – Museu de Arte, Arquitetura e Tecnologia, Av. Brasília (train: Cascais line, Belém station | buses: 728, 714, 727, 729, 751 | tram: 15). Tickets: general, 7 euros. More information at: maat.pt

EXIST/RESIST is the first institutional exhibition by Didier Fiúza Faustino. The French-Portuguese artist, known for the way in which he conceptually distances himself from architecture and design, presents an exhibition which takes its title from two of his works, ‘Exist’, from 2016, and ‘Resist’, from 2017. This showing brings together for the first time a selection of works and prototypes, which range from drawings, to photographs, large-scale installations and objects. Through installations, films, sculptures, editorial projects and temporary architecture, the artist presents the ‘body’ as a measure of individuality, an economic and political site of struggle.
Pharaoh Superstars

Until 6th March; from Wednesday to Monday; from 10 am to 6 pm; Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian, Av. de Berna, 45A (metro: São Sebastião, Praça de Espanha | buses: 713, 716, 718, 726, 742, 746, 756). Tickets: 5 euros. More information at: gulbenkian.pt

What role does the figure of the pharaoh play as a symbol of the Ancient Egypt and an icon of celebrity? This exhibition tries to reflect on this figure which lives in our imagination. Tutankhamun, Ramses and Cleopatra are familiar names, thousands of years after their deaths. From classical antiquity to pop music, including the medieval period, this showing presents 250 pieces of different natures, which range from archaeological fragments to historical documents and works or contemporary objects, from important collections belonging to the British Museum, the Louvre Museum, the Museo Egizio, and some others.
EXHIBITIONS

Not on the map?

Until 12th March; from Tuesday to Sunday; from 3 pm to 6 pm; Palácio Pimenta, Campo Grande (metro: Campo Grande | autocarros: 701, 717, 731, 735, 736, 738, 747, 750, 755, 767, 778, 783, 796, 798). Free entry. More information at: museudelisboa.pt

The doors to the garden of Palácio Pimenta open to welcome the exhibition ‘Também estão no mapa?’, an opportunity to reflect on some territories of the Lisboa Metropolitan Area. This exhibition presents the many possible narratives which the city maps may contain. It is seen as an opportunity for the less known or talked about areas to participate; they thus get a chance to establish themselves as different territorial representations and traditional narratives that we know but which are rarely mentioned.

Bosch: Contemporary Temptations

Until 19th March; from Tuesday to Sunday; from 10 am to 6 pm; Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga; Rua das Janelas Verdes (buses: 713, 714, 727). Tickets: 6 euros, general. More information at: museudearteantiga.pt

While the triptych ‘The Temptations of Saint Anthony’, by the Flemish painter Hieronymus Bosch, is on loan at the Palazzo Reale in Milan, the Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga (National Museum of Ancient Art) wanted to use the same space to give visibility to contemporary works which were directly inspired by a present-day perspective on the work. Until 19th January, the space will present a triptych by Pedro Portugal, from the Fundação EDP collection, and after that, until the end of the exhibition, a series of pieces purposely created by Pedro Zamith. The Museum thus tries to present two contemporary perspectives on the Temptations of Saint Anthony in the Desert, which in Portugal is called Santo Antão.

Révolutions Xenakis is an exhibition which is part of the celebration of the birth centenary of Romanian composer Iannis Xenakis. The exhibition honours the different dimensions of the artist, mainly the architectures of sound he created over the course of his career. Xenakis is considered an avant-garde artist and is seen as one of the founders of digital art. He was composer, architect, engineer, mathematic and computer enthusiast, but he was also a pioneer in various fields, such as electroacoustic music or computer music. This exhibition is a digital art installation which functions as a short-circuit of the scenographic process, covering the ceiling and the walls of the gallery.

Nicolas Poussin

As part of the programme of the Temporada Cruzada entre França e Portugal/Saison France-Portugal, Nicolas Poussin’s self-portrait arrives at the Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga (National Museum of Ancient Art). Considered to be one of the greatest French painters, Nicolas Poussin served as first painter to the King under Louis XIII. He spent most of his life in Rome, Italy. It was in the papal city that Paul Fréart de Chantelou, one of his closest friends, asked him for a self-portrait as a testimony to a loyal friendship. Poussin represents himself as austere and severe, with his hand resting on a stack of paper, alluding to the letters exchanged with Chantelou.
