PLAY FESTIVAL
HARRY POTTER FILM-CONCERT
An epic story that ends at the table.
This year, the German Expression Film Festival celebrates its 20th edition. The first week will take place at Cinema São Jorge, where 15 films will be shown, divided into three sections: ‘Visions’, dedicated to the big recent cinematographic works; ‘Perspectives’, which looks into the first works by German directors; and ‘Realities’, more dedicated to documentaries, such as ‘When spring came to Bucha’. The second week takes place at Cinemateca Portuguesa, with a special programme focusing on German cinema. At the end of the festival, there will also be a party with music and entertainment which will continue late into the night.
The Valentine’s Day music festival takes place throughout the country and in Lisboa it is celebrated with two concerts, one by Lena d’Água and another which was specially created for the occasion by Jorge Palma and is called As Canções de Amor. In Teatro Tivoli BBVA, Lena d’Água will take the audience on a journey to relive some of the most important songs of her repertoire from the 1980s until today. ‘Sempre que o amor me quiser’, ‘Demagogia’, ‘Grande Festa’ and ‘Hipocampo’ are songs which will certainly be part of the set list. For the special concert, which was specifically prepared for the festival, Jorge Palma takes the stage at Campo Pequeno accompanied by an orchestra and several special guests to perform his most iconic love songs.
Festival Rescaldo

From 15th to 19th of February; in various cultural spaces in Lisboa. Tickets: from 5 to 8 euros.
More information at: festival-rescaldo.info

Festival Rescaldo is back to experience national creativity, among contemporary academic composition, self-taught experimentation, jazz, electronics and some unique collaborations designed exclusively for the event. In the 13th edition, the five-day program in five different spaces emphasizes aesthetic, social and generational diversity, bringing them together to make one feel the infinite sound possibilities. In total, Rescaldo hosts 11 unique concerts and even a workshop for children. The performances begin at Galeria Zé Dos Bois (ZDB), continue on Thursday, for DAMAS, moving, the following day, to Teatro do Bairro Alto, then to MAAT and ending on the 19th at St. George Church.
Play Festival

From 25th February until 5th March; Cinema São Jorge, Av. da Liberdade; Cinemateca Portuguesa, Rua Barata Salgueiro (metro: Avenida). Tickets: Children from 2 to 16 years old, 2,80 euros; adults, 3,50 euros. More information at: playfest.pt

Play, the International Children & Youth Film Festival, is back in Lisboa with the most recent film productions dedicated to audiences until 16 years of age. With a selection of films from all corners of the world in form of short or feature films, the Play Festival presents what is shown in the international children film festivals. In between the film screenings, this event offers workshops and recreational activities. For the older audience, there is also a debate on the topic of national children’s film from the point of view of the industry.
Come and discover the mysteries of Sintra

We will take you on an amazing journey through the stories and places that have imbued this region with mystery since time immemorial and have made Sintra one of the most popular destinations in the world.

Every day from 10am to 6.30pm
(last entry at 5.30pm)
Useful Information

Lisboa is the capital of Portugal and the country’s biggest city, located on the estuary of the Tejo river, on the European Atlantic coast. It is continental Europe's westernmost capital. Portugal's official language is Portuguese. Derived from Latin roots, Portuguese is the third most spoken European language in the world, with around 200 million speakers.

Around 3 million people live in the Lisboa region, with around 600 thousand living in the capital itself. The Portuguese Constitution allows religious freedom, with various religions being practised in Portugal.

Electric voltage: 230 / 400 volts, on a 50-hertz frequency. The electric sockets adhere to European standards. Blade plugs (US standard) must be used in conjunction with a 230 volts transformer, as well as an adaptor.

In Lisboa winters are mild and summers hot, though moderated by its location near the sea. During spring and autumn there are usually sunny days with mild temperatures.

Local currency and Payments

The Euro is Portugal’s official currency, having been introduced in January 2002. 1 Euro is divided into 100 cents. There are coins of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents and 1 and 2 Euros. The bills can be distinguished by their size and colour and have the following face values: 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Euros. In Portugal, payments can be made in cash, bank transfer, cheque, credit cards and debit cards.

Tax Free

Those who live outsider the EU can benefit from VAT exemption in Portugal if they make purchases worth at least 50 euros and only for private use. For this purpose, you must present an identification document (passport or other official) to the seller, who will provide proof of the purchase registration. The process is completed when leaving the country, through an electronic terminal in the customs area of the airport, to certify the export of the goods acquired in Portugal and to know whether or not is entitled to a VAT refund.
Health

The Hospital Emergency Services must only be used for serious emergencies. In order to have access to this service, E.U. citizens who are non-resident in Portugal must show their passport or ID card and E111 and E112 forms.

Lisboa is one of the chosen cities to welcome Eros Ramazzotti’s world tour. Considered to be one of the greatest singers and songwriters in the world, the Italian presents ‘Battito Infinito’, which is a journey through the artist’s big hits and, at the same time, is a live presentation of a new album. With a message which translates as an anthem to freedom and an invitation to loving without limits, borders or barriers, Eros Ramazzotti was deeply involved in every little detail and every step of the production. ‘I followed each step of this work, taking care of each detail and nuance, and in each one of these songs there will be a little part of me and my story. I can hardly wait to meet my fans again’, says the artist.

Fado

INTANGIBLE HERITAGE OF HUMANITY
The song of Lisboa and the World

Classified as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO since November 2011, Fado is the purest expression of Lisboa’s “soul”. Much more than just a song, Fado is a musical manifestation of feeling Portuguese and a city’s way of life, always accompanied by the solemn and melancholy chords of the Portuguese guitar. Considered a brand inseparable from the culture and tradition of the Portuguese capital, Fado has been for at least two centuries, part of the city’s heritage that endowed it with soul and voice. But since influences from overseas, and from various cultures which arrived in Lisboa can also be heard in Fado, Lisboa’s song is now deservedly a shared heritage with the world. Inspired from a simple and sentimental language, Fado’s universal character surpasses all barriers and is now enjoyed by millions of fans worldwide. This internationalization of Fado is greatly due to the charisma and the voice of Amália Rodrigues, the most renowned fado singer of all time, who from the 1950’s took Lisboa’s song to the most prestigious venues, from Russia to Japan. More recently, a new generation of singers of this genre has given the song a new vitality, placing it in the circuits of World Music. The ultimate international recognition of Fado comes with UNESCO’s highest recognition, whose award of the Intangible Heritage of Humanity title makes this a perfect example of how a centuries-old tradition of a city becomes the identity symbol of a people. Therefore, whenever the lights are dimmed in a fado house and someone says “Silence, Fado is about to be sung”, this is not just a ritual that is being performed. It is, as Amália Rodrigues would say, “a strange form of life” that is being renewed.

The Uruguayan singer and songwriter Jorge Drexler presents a new original show with Borja Barrue-ta (drums), Meritxell Neddermann (keyboard and vocals), Javier Calequi (guitar and vocals), Carles ‘Campi’ Campón (bass guitar and programming), as well as Alana Sinkey and Miryam Latrece (vocals). ‘Tinta y Tiempo’ was created during lockdown, in a period of insecurity and uncertainty. Jorge Drexler chose to focus his composition on a lesson he drew from those times, moving towards a light-filled universe. The album was released less than a year ago, coinciding with the celebration of the artist’s three-decade long career.

Katia Guerreiro returns to the stage to present her most recent work ‘Mistura’, which is produced by José Mário Branco, Tiago Bettencourt and Pedro de Castro. According to the artist herself, her most recent work is ‘a mix of saudade (longing), voices, colours and sounds, parties, loneliness, arrivals and departures, promises and disillusions, dreams and smiles, new lives and death’. The show presents musicians Pedro de Castro and Luís Guerreiro on Portuguese guitar, André Ramos and Francisco Gaspar on bass guitar.
Linda Martini

10th February; at 9 pm; Lisboa ao Vivo, Av. Marechal Gomes da Costa (buses: 210, 750, 781). Tickets: 20 euros. More information at: lisboaaovivo.com

As part of the celebration of their twenty-year long career and one year of the ‘Errôr’ tour, Linda Martini presents a special concert. This will be the start of a new tour, with one more element joining the group. The rock band is now composed of André Henriques on vocals and guitar, Cláudia Guerreiro on bass guitar and vocals, Hélio Morais on drums and vocals and, more recently, Rui Carvalho on guitar. The concert promises not to disappoint, to mix rhythmic strength and melodic sensibility as well as to explore the limits of sound and the instruments in order for the band to rediscover itself.

Tributo Queen

24th February; at 9:30 pm; Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Restauradores). Tickets: from 31 to 40 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

‘We Are the Champions’, ‘I Want to Break Free’, ‘We Will Rock You’, ‘Bohemian Rhapsody’ are some of the songs which will be heard in this concert. This tribute recreates the rock opera songs, the universal anthems and the ballads which put the band led by Freddie Mercury in number 1 of the hit lists for two decades. The band responsible for the show captures the original sound as well as Queen’s personal style and stage presence. This concert, which relives remarkable moments of the 70s and 80s, is a unique opportunity to experience all of Queen’s strength, emotion and musical genius.
In 2023, the concert films of the J. K. Rowling saga return to Altice Arena. It is time for the presentation of the sixth film – ‘Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince’. On stage, the Orquestra Filarmonia das Beiras, composed of more than 90 musicians, will play, live, the soundtrack which sets the rhythm for the sixth chapter of the story taking place in this magic world. At the same time, the film is shown in high definition on a 20-meter-wide and 8-meter-high screen.

25th February; at 8:30 pm; Altice Arena, Parque das Nações (metro: Oriente | buses: 26B, 208, 210, 705, 708, 725, 728, 744, 759, 782 | train: Oriente). Tickets: from 29 to 100 euros. More information at: arena.altice.pt
The Death of the Raven

Until 31st March; from Wednesday to Saturday; at 9 pm; Sundays; at 5 pm; Hospital Militar da Estrela, Rua Santo António à Estrela, 29 A (buses: 720, 738, 773 | trams: 25E, 28E). Tickets: 38 euros. More information at: amortedocorvo.com

More than a play, ‘A Morte de um Corvo’ is an immersive experience of visual, scenic and technological impact, which proposes a journey to 1924. The plot revolves around an anticipated funeral, the death of a Portuguese poet. It all begins when Fernando Pessoa invites Mário de Sá Carneiro to the initiation ritual into the Raven Association, a society which seeks the secret of life beyond death. The Association is led by Edgar Allan Poe, who is extremely jealous of Pessoa's popularity. Ofélia's rejection, Mário's death and the deep disbelief in himself, among other events, will make the poet sink into a depressive cycle which will end in his death.

Frida Kahlo, the Immersive Biography

Until 31st December; from Tuesday to Sunday; between 5 pm and 8 pm; Reservatório da Mãe D’Água das Amoreiras, Praça das Amoreiras (metro: Rato | buses: 202, 758, 774, 713 | tram: 24). Tickets: 15 euros, general. More information at: portugalagenda.com

Frida Kahlo, the Immersive Biography is more than an exhibition; it is the combination of physical and digital environments which become an immersive and emotional journey through the life of one of the most influential artists of all time. In this 360º multimedia show, there are virtual reality experiences and video mapping in sculptures and holographic animations. The showing is divided in two moments. First, the visitors have the opportunity to go through different artistic installations, among which we can find historical photographs and original films. The second moment is characterized by the 360º audio-visual projection about Frida Kahlo’s personal life.
‘Corpo Clandestino’ is a performance which proposes to rethink the normativity of the body, making it a way of communication and sharing, instead of being reductive and standardized. Ana, Andreia, Gaya, Joãozinho, Mafalda, Paulo and Valter are the clandestine bodies which produce unforgettable images, becoming vehicles of identity. This performance brings to the stage things which usually do not belong on stage and doubles the attention on the performers, whose non-normative bodies create a landscape of a dance corps configured in opposition to the classical ideal.

Clandestine Body

16th and 17th February; at 9 pm; Auditório Emílio Rui Vilar, Culturgest, Rua Arco do Cego (metro: Campo Pequeno).
Tickets: 14 euros. More information at: culturgest.pt
Jungle Book Reimagined

17th February; at 9 pm; 18th February; at 7 pm; Auditório Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império

Based on the original story of 'The Jungle Book', Akram Khan creates a new production of dance, theatre and visual technology. This time, Mowgli’s journey is told through the eyes of a climate refugee. On stage, to the rhythm of an original soundtrack, a group of ten dancers tells the story of a family which runs away from its homeland because of the devastation caused by climate change. Alone in a modern but deserted city, where wild animals own the streets, the child quickly finds improbable allies in that strange new jungle.
Dear tear

Until 21st February; from Monday to Wednesday; from 8 am to midnight; from Thursday to Saturday; from 8 am to 2 am, Fábrica Braço de Prata, Rua da Fábrica do Material de Guerra, 1, Marvila (train: Azambuja, Sintra line; station: Braço de Prata). Free entry. More information at: bracodeprata.com

The artist Inês Assis has chosen emotions as the aggregating concept for this exhibition. In ‘Dear tear’, the artist, who is also a designer, embraces emotions in a healthy way. Composed of two cores, the exhibition is divided into an abstract construction and a figurative one, which main focus is the human face. Inês Assis uses the acrylic on canvas technique and, through the liveliness of the colours, gives the paintings a joy which the image lacks.

In the Theatre of Emotions

José Emídio

Until 12th February; from Tuesday to Friday; from 3 pm to 8 pm; Saturdays; from 3 pm to 6 pm; Galeria Eritage, Rua das Janelas Verdes, 128-B (buses: 713, 714, 727). Free entry. More information at: eritageartprojects.com

‘No Teatro das Emoções’ is the name of the exhibition which celebrates 40 years since the first solo showing by the artist José Emídio. Here we will find sets of works in different media, among which is an unprecedented series of six paintings. The artist characterizes his works through the representation of figures which are crucial to the representation of the space and the surroundings. Among oil paintings, carpets and ceramics, the used colours stand out, establishing themselves as essential to the narrative structure.
In a city where nature has been forbidden, a small crime by a simple man triggers a chain of unexpected consequences. This exhibition reveals the behind-the-scenes of the almost 11-minute long puppet short film directed by Bruno Caetano. The Portuguese film is one of the most shown all over the world, having participated in more than a hundred international festivals and won a dozen awards. Composed of streets, squares and façades of a miniature Lisboa, the exhibition shows several of the film’s sets, as well as used models, casts and graphic research material. As part of the exhibition, it is also possible to see the short film.
Carnival revelry in Lisboa

‘Life lasts for two days and Carnival lasts for three’: this Portuguese phrase is the one which best describes the potential of this festive time. Here, Carnival is synonomy for children and adults dressing up, confetti and streamers flying around, a spirit of fun in the air, with pranks and lots of fun. There are several parties and traditions to celebrate this date. Parades in the streets, processions with floats and parties with much music set the rhythm of the revelry. Whether you choose to watch the celebrations and participate in them or prefer to take the days off to walk around the city, in Lisboa you will find the best options for this time of the year.

For those who want to experience Carnival in Lisboa, there are programmed parades which they can join. Mockery and ill-speaking prevail; in other words, the protagonists are caricatures which intend to ridicule certain national events or personalities. That is what happens in the parade starting at Estação do Rossio.
(Rossio Station) and ending in Praça do Município, as well as in the parade which brings entertainment to Parque das Nações, until Alameda dos Oceanos. In addition to these two parades, there are many children's processions, mainly on the Friday prior to Carnival, which will bring much colour to the city's streets. The party is also felt in Quiosque da Ribeira das Naus, at Cais do Sodré, with the presence of the group 'Carnaval Bué Tolo', with samba, funk and much partying. With or without costumes, there are night parties at Cais do Sodré and Bairro Alto. These neighbourhoods are already known for their night entertainment, but, during this time, the colours of the masks and the themes of the parties focus on Carnival. At the Feira Internacional de Lisboa (International Fair of Lisboa), at Parque das Nações, there will also be a party to mark the beginning of Carnival. On Saturday, under the theme Kaos Garden, big names of the electronic music scene go on stage, creating a show with costumes, lights, confetti and many gifts.

For those who are visiting Lisboa but want to enjoy these days away from the revelry and excitement, the suggestion would be to very calmly discover the historical neighbourhoods.

Go, for example, to Mouraria, walk through its streets and alleys and take a look at its hidden squares. Or go up to Castelo de São Jorge (Saint George's Castle) to enjoy the view over Lisboa, by the walls or even inside the centenary construction itself. There you can find an optical system of lenses and mirrors, which provides a 360º view of the city in real time. From here, look for a corner where you can get to know Lisboa's gastronomy, with the famous bacalhau (codfish) dishes, whether in form of patanisa (fried codfish coated in batter), shredded or à Braz, or also 'iscas com elas' (liver steaks). For dessert, do not forget to try a pastel de Belém (Belém custard tart). The afternoon of these winter days can be enjoyed in a stroll along the river or in a boat trip on the Tejo. For those who prefer the green of the trees, the Estufa Fria (Cold Greenhouse) or the Jardim Botânico (Botanical Garden) are two places to put on the list.

With or without revelry, Lisboa is always a good choice for a walk and to enjoy some days off. Get to know Carnival in Lisboa or make the best of the date to explore every corner of the city.

Find out for yourself.
EXHIBITIONS

Pharaoh Superstars

Until 6th March; from Wednesday to Monday; from 10 am to 6 pm; Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian, Av. de Berna, 45A (metro: São Sebastião, Praça de Espanha | buses: 713, 716, 726, 742, 746, 756). Tickets: 5 euros. More information at: gulbenkian.pt

What role does the figure of the pharaoh play as a symbol of the Ancient Egypt and an icon of celebrity? This exhibition tries to reflect on this figure which lives in our imagination. Tutankhamun, Ramses and Cleopatra are familiar names, thousands of years after their deaths. From classical antiquity to pop music, including the medieval period, this showing presents 250 pieces of different natures, which range from archaeological fragments to historical documents and works or contemporary objects, from important collections belonging to the British Museum, the Louvre Museum, the Museo Egizio, and some others.

EXIST/RESIST

Until 6th March; from Wednesday to Monday; from noon to 6 pm; MAAT – Museu de Arte, Arquitetura e Tecnologia, Av. Brasília (train: Cascais line, Belém station | buses: 728, 714, 727, 729, 751 | tram: 15). Tickets: general, 7 euros. More information at: maat.pt

EXIST/RESIST is the first institutional exhibition by Didier Fiúza Faustino. The French-Portuguese artist, known for the way in which he conceptually distances himself from architecture and design, presents an exhibition which takes its title from two of his works, ‘Exist’, from 2016, and ‘Resist’, from 2017. This showing brings together for the first time a selection of works and prototypes, which range from drawings, to photographs, large-scale installations and objects. Through installations, films, sculptures, editorial projects and temporary architecture, the artist presents the ‘body’ as a measure of individuality, an economic and political site of struggle.
The doors to the garden of Palácio Pimenta open to welcome the exhibition ‘Também estão no mapa?’, an opportunity to reflect on some territories of the Lisboa Metropolitan Area. This exhibition presents the many possible narratives which the city maps may contain. It is seen as an opportunity for the less known or talked about areas to participate; they thus get a chance to establish themselves as different territorial representations and traditional narratives that we know but which are rarely mentioned.

Bosch: Contemporary Temptations

Until 19th March; from Tuesday to Sunday; from 10 am to 6 pm; Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga; Rua das Janelas Verdes (buses: 713, 714, 727). Tickets: 6 euros, general. More information at: museudearteantiga.pt

While the triptych ‘The Temptations of Saint Anthony’, by the Flemish painter Hieronymus Bosch, is on loan at the Palazzo Reale in Milan, the Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga (National Museum of Ancient Art) wanted to use the same space to give visibility to contemporary works which were directly inspired by a present-day perspective on the work. Until 19th January, the space will present a triptych by Pedro Portugal, from the Fundação EDP collection, and after that, until the end of the exhibition, a series of pieces purposely created by Pedro Zamith. The Museum thus tries to present two contemporary perspectives on the Temptations of Saint Anthony in the Desert, which in Portugal is called Santo Antão.
Révolutions Xenakis

Révolutions Xenakis is an exhibition which is part of the celebration of the birth centenary of Romanian composer Iannis Xenakis. The exhibition honours the different dimensions of the artist, mainly the architectures of sound he created over the course of his career. Xenakis is considered an avant-garde artist and is seen as one of the founders of digital art. He was composer, architect, engineer, mathematics and computer enthusiast, but he was also a pioneer in various fields, such as electroacoustic music or computer music. This exhibition is a digital art installation which functions as a short-circuit of the scenographic process, covering the ceiling and the walls of the gallery.

Sometimes I stare at a rock...

Until 31st March; from Tuesday to Sunday; from 10 am to 6 pm; Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga, Rua das Janelas Verdes (buses: 713, 714, 727). Tickets: 6 euros, general. More information at: museudearteantiga.pt

To mark the anniversary of artist João Cutileiro’s death, Teresa Segurado Pavão creates the exhibition ‘Às vezes, ponho-me a olhar para uma pedra…’. This showing is built around three concepts - fragment, memory and sculpture. It starts from a series of artistic objects, using clay as the element to integrate fragments which are the ‘waste’ from João Cutileiro’s sculptures. The artist uses the potter’s wheel to finish the pieces in order to evoke the lathe finishing Cutileiro applied to his sculptures and turns to iron for the connections between stone and ceramics (staples, spikes, links), alluding to the technique used by the sculptor in the structure of his works.
Which dinosaur species lived in Portugal millions of years ago? Grab brushes and shovels and enter the Palaeontology world at the Pavilhão do Conhecimento (Pavilion of Knowledge). In an intrepid journey to the Mesozoic Era, see up close a life-size representation of the most charismatic dinosaurs, such as the Tyrannosaurus rex and the Triceratops. Through the different stations, which range from the campaign tent to the laboratory, the visitors can participate in an excavation, discover the sounds of the Cretaceous, make a scientific illustration of a dinosaur and reconstruct its skeleton.

Until September; from Tuesday to Friday; from 10 am to 6 pm; last entry at 5:30 pm; weekends; from 10 am to 7 pm; last entry at 6:30 pm; Pavilhão do Conhecimento, Centro Ciência Viva, Largo José Mariano Gago (metro: Oriente | buses: 400, 705, 708, 725, 728, 744, 750, 759, 782, 794). Peter Wächtler uses narrative and, above all, monologue as tools to create. The works by the German artist take us on a journey through a universe in which fantasy, fable and existentialism are allied in the creation of sets which explore a radical ambiguity. This exhibition is his first time in Portugal and celebrates a decade of works. Faced with his drawings, sculptures and films, one sometimes feels a certain derealisation. The characters from another time and with different manners reveal our disenchantments and expectations, embodying our collective anxiety and pointing the way to dream, imagination and allegory as the right paths to redemption.

Until 16th April; from Tuesday to Sunday; from 11 am to 6 pm; Culturgest, Rua Arco do Cego, 50 (metro: Campo Pequeno). Tickets: 5 euros. More information at: culturgest.pt

‘As Máscaras do Corpo’ is an exhibition brings together a series of works from the MOVART gallery’s collection. The different artists represent the body through an association of reflections on the different modalities of corporeality. The mask may be connected to the identity issue, to a way of representation created in a theatrical or psychological context, but it can also represent the externalization towards the other, as a concealment of experiences. The selection of works by different artists occupies the exterior and interior space of the gallery, revealing different artistic proposals, which move between diverse memories and different ways of expression.
