LISBOA FESTIVITIES

EXHIBITIONS  MUSIC  DANCE  MONUMENTS
An epic story that ends at the table.
This year, the Lisboa festivities have a new festival, that promises to be the 'biggest place in the capital to celebrate the saints'. At the place where Lisboa meets the Tejo and with a view of Alfama, Doca da Marinha hosts this party which celebrates the patron saint of the city. Quim Barreiros, Ana Malhoa, Sérgio Rossi, Ruth Marlene, Mónica Sintra, Insert Coin, Rebeca, José Malhoa and Ágata are some of the artists to set the rhythm at the site. There will be much more than music. Besides the concerts, there will be games and different available activities, as well as the typical and varied gastronomy that includes grilled sardines and sushi.
Popular Marches
12th June; from 9 pm; Av. da Liberdade (metro: Avenida).
Free entry. More information at: culturanarua.pt

During the month of June, Lisboa is filled with colours, lights, rhythms and scents. The streets and alleys of the typical neighbourhoods host festivities with music and grilled sardines for anyone who wants to participate. The greatest symbol of these festivities takes place on the eve of Saint Anthony’s day, on the evening of 12th June, with the parade of popular marches along Avenida da Liberdade until Rossio. The residents of the different neighbourhoods design their sceneries, costumes and performances based on their traditions and with the purpose of showcasing their best features. After the parade, prizes are awarded to the best choreography, scenography, best lyrics and best parade. This year, besides Lisboa, the lyrics of the songs should be inspired by Parque Mayer, an iconic cultural facility that celebrated 100 years of existence.

Saint Anthony’s Weddings
12th June; at 11:30 am; Sé de Lisboa; Largo da Sé (buses: 10B, 737 | tram: 28). Free entry. More information at: egeac.pt/evento/casamentos-de-santo-antonio-2

The Saint Anthony’s Weddings are a tradition that fills Lisboa with romance. A story which dates back to 1958 with the initiative of the old newspaper Diário Popular, that wanted to materialize the idea that Saint Anthony, the most charismatic saint of Lisboa, was a matchmaker. The aim to help couples with greater financial difficulties was always cherished by the people of Lisboa. Interrupted in 1974, the weddings were resumed by the City Hall with the same intention of fulfilling the dream of many brides and grooms, who, for different reasons, were not yet able to go through with the wedding. More recently, the ceremony was included in the Lisboa festivities. This year, 16 couples will tie the knot and share the ceremony and the reception.
Lisbon Motorcycle Film Fest

1st June; at 8 pm; 2nd June; at 8:30 pm; 3rd June; from 2:30 pm; 4th June; from 12:30 pm;

Intended for those who love motorcycles, speed and movies, the Motorcycle Film Fest, at Cinema São Jorge, presents more than a dozen films exclusively dedicated to motorcycles and everything around them. With the aim of praising and celebrating the motorcycle culture beyond the seventh art and as a way of promoting creativity at the same time as it provides an opportunity to bring together motorcycles, pilots, artists, directors and actors, this festival has a diverse programme, with feature and short films cinema sessions, conversations with national and international guests, exhibitions, night tours, live transmission of sporting events and artistic interventions.
The gardens of the Torre de Belém are the stage for Portuguese music with two days of culture and communion between artists and audience. On the first day, Nuno Lopes' DJ Set, with its thorough and eclectic selection of electronic beats, kicks off the late afternoon rhythms and is followed by a show by the Lisbon Film Orchestra, directed by conductor Nuno Sá, in a format of strings, piano and percussion. The night ends with a session of outdoor cinema, for the showing of the concert film 'Circo de Feras' by Xutos & Pontapés. On the second day, the stage will belong to new talents, such as Azia, Quase Nicolau, Peter Suede, redoma, Velhote do Carmo and Ana Lua Caiano. There is also room for renowned artists such as Gisela João, GNR, Nenny, Sérgio Godinho, You Can't Win Charlie Brown and the project José Pinhal Post Mortem Experience.

A new Jazz festival has arrived in Lisboa. As part of the celebrations of the 50th anniversary of Universidade Nova, the institution organized a four-day event with 13 concerts, four of which are world premieres and five are novelties in the national territory. The programming was in charge of Pedro Costa (Clean Feed Records) and is oriented to think about the current state of this musical style, from the female presence to improvisation with unlikely instruments, passing through the redefinition of paradigms. The festival, designed with the function of diagnosing the paths of new jazz, brings together artists such as Susana Santos Silva and Carlos Bica, João Barrradas and Hugo Carvalhais on stage, also highlighting the presentation of the tap-dancing project, unique in the world and debuting in Portugal, “One Small Step”.

Useful Information

Lisboa is the capital of Portugal and the country's biggest city, located on the estuary of the Tejo river, on the European Atlantic coast. It is continental Europe's westernmost capital. Portugal's official language is Portuguese. Derived from Latin roots, Portuguese is the third most spoken European language in the world, with around 200 million speakers. Around 3 million people live in the Lisboa region, with around 600 thousand living in the capital itself. The Portuguese Constitution allows religious freedom, with various religions being practised in Portugal.

Electric voltage: 230 / 400 volts, on a 50-hertz frequency. The electric sockets adhere to European standards. Blade plugs (US standard) must be used in conjunction with a 230 volts transformer, as well as an adaptor.

In Lisboa winters are mild and summers hot, though moderated by its location near the sea. During spring and autumn there are usually sunny days with mild temperatures.

Local currency and Payments

The Euro is Portugal's official currency, having been introduced in January 2002. 1 Euro is divided into 100 cents. There are coins of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents and 1 and 2 Euros. The bills can be distinguished by their size and colour and have the following face values: 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Euros. In Portugal, payments can be made in cash, bank transfer, cheque, credit cards and debit cards.

The song of Lisboa and the World

Classified as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO since November 2011, Fado is the purest expression of Lisboa’s “soul”. Much more than just a song, Fado is a musical manifestation of feeling Portuguese and a city’s way of life, always accompanied by the solemn and melancholy chords of the Portuguese guitar.

Considered a brand inseparable from the culture and tradition of the Portuguese capital, Fado has been for at least two centuries, part of the city’s heritage that endowed it with soul and voice. But since influences from overseas, and from various cultures which arrived in Lisboa can also be heard in Fado, Lisboa’s song is now deservedly a shared heritage with the world. Inspired from a simple and sentimental language, Fado’s universal character surpasses all barriers and is now enjoyed by millions of fans worldwide. This internationalization of Fado is greatly due to the charisma and the voice of Amália Rodrigues, the most renowned fado singer of all time, who from the 1950’s took Lisboa’s song to the most prestigious venues, from Russia to Japan. More recently, a new generation of singers of this genre has given the song a new vitality, placing it in the circuits of World Music.

The ultimate international recognition of Fado comes with UNESCO’s highest recognition, whose award of the Intangible Heritage of Humanity title makes this a perfect example of how a centuries-old tradition of a city becomes the identity symbol of a people. Therefore, whenever the lights are dimmed in a fado house and someone says “Silence, Fado is about to be sung”, this is not just a ritual that is being performed. It is, as Amália Rodrigues would say, “a strange form of life” that is being renewed.
Fado Houses
Here visitors can experience the whole atmosphere and rituals associated with Lisboa’s song and listen to this language of emotions. Set in the historic districts of the city such as Alfama, Bairro Alto, Lapa and Alcântara, there are diverse establishments which host regular performances of fado, with resident artists.

Vita Prima. Santo António em Portugal is intended to be a journey through the life of the young Fernando de Bulhões. Santo António had two lives with a turning point in joining the Order of Friars Minor. If, on the one hand, in Italy and France, he is better known as a preacher and teacher of this Order, on the other hand, in Portugal, oral tradition has tried to preserve the memory of this figure’s childhood and youth. This exhibition is a proposal to understand how the saint and the values associated with him (sacred and profane) became pillars of Lisboa’s identity.

In ‘Plástico: Reconstruir o Nosso Mundo’ the visitors will find three sections about the origin, the evolution and the possible future of this material. The exhibition does not intend to be anti-plastic, but throughout the sections it reveals the human relationship with these objects and casings, from the way they are made, to how they are used and discarded. The exhibition begins with a videographic installation about the geological condition that makes it possible to manufacture plastic. The second section goes through the history of plastic, from its natural origin to the experimentation with synthetic materials and the third takes stock of the present efforts to rethink plastic, develop alternatives, reduce its production and consumption, as well as encourage its reuse.
The Shrines of Saint Anthony of Lisboa

The month to celebrate the most popular saint of Lisboa is here. In June, there is no street, avenue or neighbourhood that does not celebrate Saint Anthony with its own small or big festivity, which generally starts by the end of the afternoon and is accompanied by popular music and typical snacks, such as sardines on bread.

Saint Anthony is considered the patron saint of Lisboa, although the real patron saint of the city is Saint Vicent. This iconic religious character was born in Lisboa, in August 1195, and passed away on 13th June 1231, in Padua. His path and legacy are cherished by all and, every year, throughout the whole month, and not only on the 13th (that is the city holiday), Lisboa celebrates its Saint.

The tradition of the shrine creation, which is rooted in the collective memory of the inhabitants of Lisboa, dates back to the earthquake of 1755. A large part of Lisboa was destroyed, but among the structures that... endured were the crypt and the high altar of the Igreja de Santo António (Church of Saint Anthony) and the image of the Saint which still exists today. To fully restore it, people organized collections and fundraisings, with small shrines dedicated to the Saint set up in front of the houses. These were not like royal seats, but rather like altars and served as money boxes. This tradition was recovered and to this day they are set up as a triangular-shaped staircase and, contrary to a king or a figure of power, Saint Anthony is at the top, standing. In the 18th century, almost every house in Lisboa had a shrine at the door during the Saint Anthony festivities. In the following century, this tradition was limited to the historical neighbourhoods and in the 20th century someone had the idea to create a Shrine contest, which all the neighbourhoods of Lisboa could enter. Today, tradition is kept alive, with diverse shrines being set up in the streets, decorated with flowers, lights and other festive elements. They are elaborate structures, generally made of wood, that are set up in public places to be seen, only during the month of June, in a grand exhibition throughout the whole city as a tribute to Saint Anthony.

Any person can build their own shrine. Created around a specific theme, these artistic pieces mainly use colourful flowers in the decoration and the details, that can vary between biblical scenes, related to the religious figure, and representations of Portuguese culture, containing details such as the tiles, fado and traditional costumes. More than artistic manifestations, the Shrines of Saint Anthony are expressions of religious devotion and cultural identity. They represent the devotion to the religious figure, but also the will to celebrate the cultural heritage. They become more important to those who look for them because they are only exhibited during the month of June.

The Shrines belong to the streets and it is walking through Lisboa that they can be found and enjoyed. In 2022, the number of shrines to embellish the streets during the whole month of June amounted to 180 and it was possible to create an itinerary to visit and get to know them. With their different decorations and themes, they prove to be true works of art, that express the religious devotion and the cultural identity. The Shrines of Saint Anthony delight the visitors and are part of a unique tradition in Lisboa. Discover by yourself.
Evgenia Emets created the multidisciplinary artistic project Eternal Forest in 2018. By creating artistic works and experiences in the forest, this experience has the aim of communicating ideas about ecology and biodiversity, connecting people with nature and the forest ecosystem, through art and creativity. Walks, performances, audio guides, reflection sessions or ateliers are some of the experiences one can have in contact with nature in this project. The aim is to raise awareness of the protection of nature, bringing the message to different audiences, from the general public to a more specialized circle, such as scientists, biologists, landscape architects, plastic artists or others.

The exhibition ‘Kukas. Homenagem à Geometria’ is inaugurated on the day that the author of the first renovation of the formal language of jewellery in Portugal turns 95. This showing presents recently created pieces, diverse objects and materials, ranging from necklaces, pendants and brooches, to earrings, cufflinks and bracelets, made of gold, silver, baroque pearls, agate, shells, rock crystal, lapis-lazuli and mother-of-pearl, remodelling the traditions of jewellery with features of contemporaneity. In 1963 Kukas had her first exhibition in Lisboa. Sixty years later, the artist once again presents jewellery as a hybrid art that combines drawing, sculpture, painting, architecture and design.
The exhibition ‘Jorge Barradas no Jardim da Europa’ represents an artistic journey through about 70 works of the Portuguese modernist. Organized in four sections, this showing presents a series of paintings in different formats and techniques, which transport the visitors to the bohemian life in the Lisbon of the 1920s and 1930s, between cafés and theatres of the capital. This is the biggest exhibition ever made about the artist, gathering works from his 60-year-long career from Museu Nacional de Arte Contemporânea, Instituto de História da Arte of FCSH/NOVA and Fundação Millennium bcp.

EXHIBITIONS
Over 26 years, Luís Caetano Pereira de Carvalho built the centre piece of the exhibition ‘Cidade-Miniatura’, which the museum team affectionately calls ‘the fireman’s model’. The meticulous work made in polychrome wood is 2.21 meters long and 0.89 meters wide, in a 1:1000 scale. This model represents Lisboa in the first decades of the 20th century. It represents all the carefully studied buildings which were created with the characteristics and colours of the time, revealing the evolution of the city and the changes time has brought about since then.

The Immersive Dimension
Jorge Marçal da Silva

Until 31st August; from Monday to Friday; from 10 am to 6 pm; Arquivo Fotográfico; Rua da Palma, 246 (metro: Martim Moniz | buses: 208, 708, 734 | trams: 12E, 28E). Free entry. More information at: arquivomunicipal.lisboa.pt

Jorge Marçal da Silva (1878-1929) was a surgeon and amateur photographer. He took his first picture on 12th August 1906, a family portrait on a Sunday afternoon, in the garden of his house in Lisboa. This exhibition gathers about four thousand of this author’s pictures on a gelatine and silver support on glass, highlighting his photographic production in terms of stereoscopy. It reveals the ‘photographic trends’ of the time, among family and friends, intangible heritage, constructions and nature, strolls and travels. Today, these pictures can be seen through historical and modern devices and it is also possible to observe prints of the time, record books of his photographs and other personal objects.

Since its introduction in the West, the fan has become an object of fascination, in which powerful social and cultural messages converge: luxury, exoticism, status and power. "Na Senda dos Ques Orientales" presents 180 pieces that trace the history, characteristics and uses of the Chinese fan in Europe from the 16th century onwards. The exhibition features rare specimens, various objects of painting, sculpture, photography, porcelain and graphic documents that illustrate their usefulness. This exhibition recreates the history of the fan, from its origin and manufacturing processes to its functions in different contexts.

Until 10th September; from Tuesday to Sunday; from 10 am to 7 pm; last entry at 6:30 pm; Museu CBB; Praça do Império (buses: 28, 714,727,729,751 | tram:15 | train: Cascais line; station: Belém). Tickets: 5 euros, general. More information at: ccb.pt

The exhibition ‘Em Bruto: Relaçoes Comoventes’ is a large installation which adapts itself to the place where it is presented. From Fundación Cerezales Antonio y Cinia de León, in Spain, to CCB, the artistic structure starts from beams, trestles and joists that summon notions of spatial reconstruction and reconfiguration. The set created is therefore as much physical as a reflection on architecture, the city, space and modernity. For this reason, the exhibition includes a reading room, where it is possible to consult books mentioned in the installation, and an introductory room to the new piece, composed of a series of elements that the author, Fernanda Fragateiro, has called Materials Lab.
