MONSTRA
ANIMATION
FESTIVAL
ALICE IN MAGICAL GARDEN

EXHIBITIONS  MUSIC  DANCE  MONUMENTS
An epic story that ends at the table.
The Rescaldo Festival returns to Lisboa to celebrate innovative and idiosyncratic music. In five days, the event will be in four rooms in the city, namely Centro Cultural de Belém (CCB), DAMAS bar, Zé Dos Bois gallery (ZDB) and St. George Church, with 12 concerts and a DJ Set. The first to perform, at DAMAS, are Clothilde, who recently released “Os Princípios do Novo Homem”, and Carlos Zíngaro, who will be performing accompanied by unreleased images of the most recent film by Inês Oliveira, “A Escuta”. After that, there are presentations at CCB, with Vasco Alves’ concert for bagpipe and electronics and the band Toda a Matéria, with a multimedia piece. On the 5th, ZDB opens its doors to three concerts and a DJ Set and the closing of the festival takes place the following day at St. George Church, where Banha da Cobra presents a quadraphonic concert which takes advantage of the excellent acoustic characteristics of the space.
Monstra

The theme of the 21st edition of the animation festival Monstra is analogical and digital animation. This year, Bulgaria is the honoured country and the starting point for this edition are the cinematographic aesthetic differences of Eastern Europe, promoting a retrospective on Bulgarian cinema. In this theme the highlight is the world premiere of the film “To Put It Mildly”, by Anri Koulev. The competition extends to more than 200 films, such as “Ma Famille Afghane”, by the Czech Michaela Pavlátová, and “La Traversée”, by the French Florence Miailhe, in the feature films section. “Bad Seeds”, by the Canadian Claude Cloutier, and “Bestia”, by the Chilean Hugo Covarrubias, are the highlights in the category of short films. In addition to the competition, there is a special program dedicated to Brazilian animated cinema, AnimaBR, which will feature “O Menino e o Mundo”, one of the five films nominated for the Oscar for Best Animated Film in 2016. The attractions are many in a festival which also marks the 85th anniversary of “Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs” and exhibits more than 400 films, from 46 different countries.
ANTIGONA 3 por 3,5

From 3rd March, from Thursday to Saturday, at 8:30pm, and Sunday, at 5pm, Chapitô, Costa do Castelo, 7 (bus: 737 | tram: 28E). Tickets: 12 euros. More information at: chapito.org

Chapitô continues its task of transforming tragedy into comedy, questioning the aspects of physical and social reality. This time, creation number 38 by the Companhia rewrites Antigone. In the original story, after Oedipus’ death, his two sons, Eteocles and Polynices, decide to govern Thebes for equal periods of time. By the end of the first period, Polynices claims his place and is stopped by Eteocles. Both brothers face each other in a war and end up dying. Enters Creon, uncle to both, who decrees that Eteocles be buried with all honours, while Polynices, considered a traitor, has no right to a tomb. To better understand the tragedy by Sophocles, Companhia do Chapitô will transport the plot to the present days, promising a surprising reflection on the work’s central ideas.
Do you dare to enter Alice’s world? That is the challenge which Magical Garden presents to all those who visit it. It is a magical journey through the most fun and thrilling random situations experienced by the character created by Lewis Carroll. It is a sensorial adventure inspired by “Alice in Wonderland” and “Alice Through the Looking Glass”, which proposes an immersive one kilometre journey, in which the spectator is simultaneously a part of the story. The show has no beginning and no end, unfolding in a one-way route with 24 luminous experiences taken from both books: giant luminous sculptures, light design, sound environments, multimedia and interactive installations, such as an augmented reality application. The visitor may take his time in his favourite moments, because the visit has no other time limit besides the closing of the garden.
Come and discover the mysteries of Sintra

We will take you on an amazing journey through the stories and places that have imbued this region with mystery since time immemorial and have made Sintra one of the most popular destinations in the world. Useful Information

Lisboa is the capital of Portugal and the country’s biggest city, located on the estuary of the Tejo river, on the European Atlantic coast. It is continental Europe’s westernmost capital. Portugal’s official language is Portuguese. Derived from Latin roots, Portuguese is the third most spoken European language in the world, with around 200 million speakers.

Around 3 million people live in the Lisboa region, with around 600 thousand living in the capital itself. The Portuguese Constitution allows religious freedom, with various religions being practised in Portugal.

Electric voltage: 230 / 400 volts, on a 50-hertz frequency. The electric sockets adhere to European standards. Blade plugs (US standard) must be used in conjunction with a 230 volts transformer, as well as an adaptor.

In Lisboa winters are mild and summers hot, though moderated by its location near the sea. During spring and autumn there are usually sunny days with mild temperatures.

Local currency and Payments

The Euro is Portugal’s official currency, having been introduced in January 2002. 1 Euro is divided into 100 cents. There are coins of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents and 1 and 2 Euros. The bills can be distinguished by their size and colour and have the following face values: 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Euros. In Portugal, payments can be made in cash, bank transfer, cheque, credit cards and debit cards.

Tax Free

Those who live outsider the EU can benefit from VAT exemption in Portugal if they make purchases worth at least 50 euros and only for private use. For this purpose, you must present an identification document (passport or other official) to the seller, who will provide proof of the purchase registration. The process is completed when leaving the country, through an electronic terminal in the customs area of the airport, to certify the export of the goods acquired in Portugal and to know whether or not is entitled to a VAT refund.

Anne Teresa De Keersmaeker presents a solo choreography for the Goldberg Variations, from Bach's late period. In this theme, the composer designs a variation game, starting from a simple and tranquil melody and working toward a universe of musical complexity. Only with pianist Pavel Kolesnikov on stage, the choreographer and dancer will try to interpret the theme which has more than 30 variations, facing the challenge of finding a way to dance which allows her to maintain the adaptation and flexibility that diversity requires.

Fado

INTANGIBLE HERITAGE OF HUMANITY
The song of Lisboa and the World

Classified as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO since November 2011, Fado is the purest expression of Lisboa's "soul". Much more than just a song, Fado is a musical manifestation of feeling Portuguese and a city's way of life, always accompanied by the solemn and melancholy chords of the Portuguese guitar.

Considered a brand inseparable from the culture and tradition of the Portuguese capital, Fado has been for at least two centuries, part of the city's heritage that endowed it with soul and voice. But since influences from overseas, and from various cultures which arrived in Lisboa can also be heard in Fado, Lisboa's song is now deservedly a shared heritage with the world. Inspired from a simple and sentimental language, Fado's universal character surpasses all barriers and is now enjoyed by millions of fans worldwide. This internationalization of Fado is greatly due to the charisma and the voice of Amália Rodrigues, the most renowned fado singer of all time, who from the 1950's took Lisboa's song to the most prestigious venues, from Russia to Japan. More recently, a new generation of singers of this genre has given the song a new vitality, placing it in the circuits of World Music.

The ultimate international recognition of Fado comes with UNESCO's highest recognition, whose award of the Intangible Heritage of Humanity title makes this a perfect example of how a centuries-old tradition of a city becomes the identity symbol of a people. Therefore, whenever the lights are dimmed in a fado house and someone says "Silence, Fado is about to be sung", this is not just a ritual that is being performed. It is, as Amália Rodrigues would say, "a strange form of life" that is being renewed.

CONCERTS

Linda Martini

With a career of almost two decades, Linda Martini, formed by André Henriques, Pedro Geraldes, Cláudia Guerreiro and Hélio Morais, are already considered one of the most influential rock bands in Portuguese music. A week after the release of the band’s most recent album, “Errôr”, the band goes back to clubs and promises a concert which will join audience and musicians around their most iconic songs.

Ute Lemper

Rendez Vous With Marlene

“Rendezvous With Marlene” is a concert presented by the artist Ute Lemper, sharing the history of the German actress and singer Marlene Dietrich. The show is based on a telephone conversation between both of them and presents several songs portraying the different phases in Marlene’s life, from her cabaret years in Berlin to the collaborations with pianist and composer Burt Bacharach. “Where Have All the Flowers Gone”, “I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face”, “Blowin’ in the Wind” and “Just a Gigolo” are just some of the songs interpreted in this concert, which promises to be memorable.
Masego

8th March, at 8:30pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Restauradores). Tickets: from 20 to 29 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

Masego is back in Portugal for another unique concert. His mixture of jazz, soul and rhythm and blues, which has been winning the public over, is now presenting at Coliseu de Lisboa, as part of the “Studying Abroad” tour, to showcase new songs. After presenting his voice combined with the sound of the saxophone and beats, Masego jumps from the digital music platforms onto the stages. His career is growing and today, with influences from names like Pharell, Michael Jackson, Jamie Foxx, John P. Kee, André 3000 or Cab Calloway, he invites the fans to revisit some of his songs.

Capitão Fausto

10 years of Gazela

Capitão Fausto celebrate a decade since the release of their first album, “Gazela”. Four other released works followed this first one and today Domingos Coimbra, Francisco Ferreira, Manuel Palha, Salvador Seabra and Tomás Wallenstein go back to the first one to revisit it in a nostalgic concert, which will also include other songs from the quintet’s repertoire, which has already been awarded two Globos de Ouro, one in 2016 and the second one in 2019.
David 10 anos de Carreira

18th March, at 9:30pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Restauradores). Tickets: from 15 to 22,50 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

David Carreira celebrates a decade of concerts in a show which combines music and dance and features a series of special light and video effects. The event also marks the return of the musician to the stage, after two years of pandemic. And with the symbolism of taking place in the same room he sold out in 2020, in his 360.º concert, becoming one of the youngest artists ever to achieve such a feat.

Cassete Pirata

Pir, António Quintino, João Pinheiro, Margarida Campelo and Joana Espadinha come together through Portuguese jazz, landscapes and sounds to form the band Cassete Pirata. The band, formed in 2016, goes on stage at Musicbox to present songs from the first record, “A Montra”, released in 2019, and to showcase some songs from their most recent work, “A Semente”, released at the end of last year.
Pimenta Caseira

Pimenta Caseira are not a band nor a condiment, they are a collective. With their official address at the pink street (Rua Cor de Rosa), in Cais do Sodré, in Lisboa, the group of seven musicians presents itself for a show in its favourite block of the capital. Shortly after the release of their first record, “Cais Vol. 1”, they go on stage for a concert with special guests: Janeiro, Pité and MAR. As is already characteristic of this band, the party extends from the stage to the dance floor, with DJ Progressivu setting the pace.

História do Hip Hop Tuga

The history of Hip Hop Tuga is celebrated on the stage of Altice Arena, in a concert which will bring together over 40 artists, united by this musical current. MCing, DJing, B-boying and Writing, the four pillars of the movement celebrating almost three decades of existence, will be called to participate in a journey through this style’s sound, image, dance, art and culture.
Pedro Abrunhosa com a Orquestra Clássica do Sul

The composer, author, songwriter, producer, editor, poet and musician Pedro Abrunhosa is putting the final touches on his most recent record, which he guarantees will be of the kind the public is accustomed to. The artist goes on stage at Campo Pequeno, accompanied by the Orquestra Clássica do Sul, to share that novelty with the audience. This is already his ninth original work and promises a “telluric sonority”, a magical realism, wrapped in raw aesthetics.

The Kooks

26th March, at 8:30pm, Campo Pequeno (metro: Campo Pequeno). Tickets: from 24 to 34 euros. More information at: campopequeno.com

To celebrate the 15th anniversary of the album “Inside In/Inside Out”, The Kooks will make themselves heard at Campo Pequeno to show, once again, that they are one of the pillars of the indie pop in the United Kingdom. The Snuts, who were invited by the band, will be performing in the first part of the concert. In the second moment, The Kooks relive singles such as “Naive”, “Sofa Bed” and “Seaside”, among several other songs.
Europa Oxalá

From 4th March, from Wednesday to Monday, from 10am to 6pm, last entry at 5:30pm, Fundação Gulbenkian, Av. de Berna (metro: Praça de Espanha, São Sebastião | buses: 716, 726, 756, 746, 713, 742). Ticket: 5 euros. More information at: gulbenkian.pt

“Europa Oxalá” is a collective exhibition which counts on the participation of 21 artists with family origins in the former African colonies. Being children and grandchildren of people who were born and lived in Angola, Congo, Benin, Guinea, Algeria and Madagascar, they inherit memories, images, gestures and sounds from their cultures of origin, to which they add research work for their artistic productions. Reflections on racism, the status of women in society, the deconstruction of colonial thinking and the decolonization of the arts itself are the themes portrayed in this exhibition, which displays about 60 works, including drawings, paintings, sculptures, installations, photos and films.
EXHIBITIONS

From 12th March, from Tuesday to Sunday, from 11am to 6pm, Culturgest, Rua Arco do Cego, 50 (metro: Campo Pequeno). Tickets: 5 euros. More information at: culturgest.pt

Tony Conrad

From music to video and cinema, also passing through painting, Tony Conrad is considered one of the biggest names of experimentalism in western art. This exhibition showcases, for the first time in Portugal, some of his most important works. In what cinematography is concerned, the film “The Flicker” (1966) and the show “Yellow Movies” will be shown (1972-73). In the latter, the artist seeks a merger between photography, painting and cinema. With an artistic career marked by the normative aspects of culture and the ability to respond to them in a critical and humorous way, this exhibition presents several works from the different areas the artists has worked in throughout his career.

Beber a água do Lilau

The expression goes “Whoever drinks from Lilau’s water will never forget Macau” and this exhibition is as much a visit to the collection of the artist Nuno Barreto as a journey through the images he took, both from the people and from the places of the Macanese territory. Between acrylics, gouaches, drawing books, drafts, notes, magazines, books, catalogues and photographs, the oriental city has left such a mark in the artist, that he even claims “it entered his blood never to leave it again.”
Traverser la Nuit

From 12th March, from Wednesday to Monday, from 11am to 7pm, MAAT – Museu de Arte, Arquitetura e Tecnologia, Av. Brasília (train: Cascais line, Belém station | buses: 728, 714, 727, 729, 751 | tram: 15). Tickets: general, 5 euros; students and seniors, 3 euros. More information at: maat.pt

“Traverser la Nuit” reveals a comprehensive view on the personal collection of Antoine de Galbert, an artist who excels in the connection between contemporary art, popular arts and outsider art. The night theme is inspired by the place and the history of the exhibition space: Central Tejo. Built in the beginning of the 20th century to supply Lisboa and its surroundings with electricity, the building is a true testimony to the transformation of the beginning of the century, which completely changed the relation the human beings have with the night. In this exhibition, the visitors can go through the night period, from dusk to dawn, passing through several stages.

Japão, uma terra de poetas

In this exhibition by Catarina Quintas, winner of the competition to support artistic creation for young people at the beginning of their careers, each drawing can represent a short trip to traditional Japan. Full of customs and histories, the beauty of Japan is represented here in Chinese ink and watercolor drawings. In this exhibition, the investigation joins the imagination to recreate episodes from everyday life and from the Japanese spiritual dimension. The artist tried to reproduce some of the aspects she admires in Japanese culture, as a tribute to a land of poets.
Women artists of Lisboa

What do Vieira da Silva, Maria Keil, Maluda, Paula Rego and Joana Vasconcelos have in common? All of them are artists whose artistic path passed through Lisboa. In the month which celebrates the International Women’s Day, we revisit the path of some Portuguese women who left their mark in art and in history.

Born in Lisboa, Maria Helena Vieira da Silva (1908-1992) developed a taste for drawing, painting and sculpture. However, it was as a painter that she stood out, having received several awards and international recognitions, among which the Grand Prix National des Arts: she was the first woman ever to receive it. In Lisboa there are several works by the artist to be discovered, among which the decorative panels in the metro stations of Cidade Universitária and Rato. Also the Árpád Szenes-Vieira da Silva Foundation, created at the old Fábrica dos Tecidos de Seda of Lisboa, seeks to explore and publicize the study of the artworks, both of Vieira da Silva and of her husband, Árpád Szenes.

Maria Keil (1914-2012) is another example of feminine artistic prominence. Having been part of the second generation of Portuguese modernistic painters, the main legacy she left was the visual renovation of the contemporary Portuguese tile. She committed herself to the creation of patterns and colour variations, having been one of the first artists to explore the tile standardization. One of her most important works is “O mar” (The sea), a panel which can be seen in Avenida Infante Santo, in Lisboa. She was a pioneer in public art and the almost exclusive author of the first metro stations: Restauradores, Parque, Campo Pequeno and Entre Campos bear witness to this statement.

Maria de Lourdes Ribeiro, known as Maluda (1934-1999), began her career as a self-taught portraitist. After finishing her studies in Europe, her interest in urban landscape compositions, and also in portraits, increased. One of the portraits she painted was of Amália Rodrigues. Later, she focused on the window theme, works for which she is most recognized today. To look at the houses in the Lisboa quarters is, therefore, a way to discover this artist.

With an unpaired artistic path, Paula Rego (born in Lisboa in 1935) is an internationally renowned painter, honoured by Queen Elizabeth II and by the Portuguese government. She is the author of the official portrait of President Jorge Sampaio, becoming the first woman in the gallery of official presidential painters. The result of the strokes from her creative imagination are in the main museums, with a special place in Casa das Histórias, in Cascais.

More feminine examples can be listed. Joana Vasconcelos lives and works in Lisboa. The plastic artist who put the world’s spotlight on Portugal was the first woman ever and the youngest contemporary artist to show her work at Versailles. Her work is based on the appropriation and decontextualization of the objects, turning the installations and sculptures into social criticism. She also has several interventions in public art, of which “O sapato” (The shoe), made with 150 pots and the respective lids, “Coração Independente Vermelho” (Independent Red Heart) and several others stand out.

EXHIBITIONS

O Sistema

Until 30th April, from Tuesday to Friday, from 10am to 7pm, Saturday, from 10am to 8pm, Insofar Art Gallery, Rua Capitão Leitão, 53 (bus: 101). Free entry. More information at: insofar.art

“O Sistema” is an individual exhibition by the artist Cristiano Mangovo. Considered to be one of the most creative painters of the Angolan post-war generation, he presents a selection of original paintings about socio-political issues. Hierarchies, conflicts of interest, divided, deep rooted and widespread mentalities, power, its conquest and maintenance are the patent themes in this exhibition, which reveal Mangovo’s exuberant style, almost defined as “figurative expressionism”, with bold colours and contrasts and distorted body representations.

Sombras de vento. Entre águas

Until 8th May, from Wednesday to Sunday, from 10am to 6pm, Fundação Arpad Szenes - Vieira da Silva, Praça das Amoreiras (buses: 706, 709, 713, 758, 720, 727, 738, 774, 723 | metro: Rato). Tickets: 5 euros, general, 2,50 students and seniors, free entry on Sunday until 2pm. More information at: fasvs.pt

The individual exhibition by the artist Carlos Nogueira gathers a series of works done throughout 2021. The objects gathered here, despite being daily utensils which bring to mind their original functions, are exhibited as being in a transition state between matter and art. “Sombras de vento. Entre águas” thus intends to activate an artistic dimension of the objects, in which, by means of lighting effects, they are seen as being in stand-by to become something different.
Restless Anxiety.
Works from the Rui Victorino collection

Until 8th May, from Wednesday to Sunday from 10am to 6pm, Fundação Arpad Szenes - Vieira da Silva, Praça das Amoreiras (buses: 706, 709, 713, 758, 720, 727, 738, 774, 723 | metro: Rato). Tickets: 5 euros, general, 2.50 students and seniors, free entry on Sunday until 2pm.
More information at: fasvs.pt

In "Inquieta Ansiedade" we can find 60 works of modern and contemporary art, from the private collection of doctor and investigator Rui Victorino. With predominantly national artists, this exhibition intends to show some of the protagonists of modernism in Portugal. The exhibition tries to consider the concerns of the artists, who were able to capture and interpret the actuality of the aesthetic movements of the time. Works by authors like Paula Rego, Helena Almeida, Eduardo Nery, Noronha da Costa, Jorge Martins can be found in this exhibition, as well as works by international artists, such as Vasarely, Albers or Sonia Deaunay.

Breviário do Quotidiano #8

Until 8th May, from Wednesday to Sunday from 10am to 6pm, Fundação Arpad Szenes - Vieira da Silva, Praça das Amoreiras (buses: 706, 709, 713, 758, 720, 727, 738, 774, 723 | metro: Rato). Tickets: 5 euros, general, 2.50 students and seniors, free entry on Sunday until 2pm.
More information at: fasvs.pt

With the exhibition "Breviário do Quotidiano #8" the physical space of the Fundação Arpad Szenes - Vieira da Silva is transformed into an artistic space. The sculptures represented here, which are also mobile, make it possible to turn life into a performance during the exhibition. All because Ana Pérez-Quirong installed the "House" in the space of the museum. Focused on daily life, the artist centres her work around this theme and the significance of the common objects in constructing a self-representation. Thus, she opens doors and windows to different perceptions of spaces and objects.

Lx 14 mayo 1575

Five centuries ago, more precisely on a May day in 1575, the view of Lisboa from the Tejo was quite different from the one we have today. At the time, Portugal was a commercial empire, pioneer in the opening of several sea routes and Lisboa had the Tejo as an entrance door, where every day ships arrived with merchandise from all the cities in the world. On a normal day, 14th May, Simão de Miranda, a Portuguese in the service of the duke of Turin, arrived on a ship and took the opportunity of his short visit to draw and impressive view of the city from the Tejo. It was because of archaeological evidences recovered from the old church of S. Julião, where this drawing was included, that several objects from that time were found. This exhibition reveals aspects from the daily life of the city of Lisboa by the end of the sixteenth century.

Daniel Dewar & Grégory Gicquel

In this exhibition, Daniel Dewar and Grégory Gicquel present a world which is rather similar to ours, but with slight differences and distortions. Augmented, fragmented, chipped, molten and even duplicated objects create the idea that they exist in another dimension or in another planet, where the absurd gives way to the ordinary an daily. The artists’ duo, which has worked together since the time they were college students, uses terracotta, wood, stone and textile, both for their artistic productions and to create the utensils they then use to make the objects.
Until September, from Tuesday to Friday, from 10am to 6pm, last entry at 5:30pm, weekends, from 10am to 7pm, last entry at 6:30pm, Pavilhão do Conhecimento, Centro Ciência Viva, Largo José Mariano Gago (metro: Oriente | buses: 400, 705, 708, 725, 728, 744, 750, 759, 782 e 794). Tickets: 10 euros, general, youngsters up to 17 years of age, 8 euros, seniors, 7 euros. More information at: pavconhecimento.pt

In the world there are still at least two million people who have no access to potable water. But “Água – uma exposição sem filtro” does not intend to be a serious or pessimistic exhibition. Quite the contrary: in a positive and conscious tone, this exhibition, which is mainly dedicated to the younger ones, explores the different ways to use water. In 30 modules and four big themes, the visitors will be able to experiment present and future activities with and without access to this essential asset, in order to draw everyone’s attention to the importance of saving and using it efficiently.
EXHIBITIONS

Until 29th May, every day, from 10am to 6.30pm, Museu Coleção Berardo, Praça do Império (train: Cascais line, Belém station | buses: 729, 714, 727, 728, 751 | tram: 15). Tickets: from Sunday to Friday, 5 euros; Saturday, free entry. More information at: museuberardo.pt

Yuri Dojc’s and Katya Krausova’s exhibition reveals images of what is left of the last historic testimony in the life of a people. A story interrupted by the Jews’ deportation to concentration camps in 1942. Ruins of schools, synagogue wreckage, pieces left from books and objects can be found in this exhibition, which also includes a series of Holocaust survivors’ portraits and a film which expose the signs of the destruction of Jewish culture caused by the nazis.

Until 30th May, from Wednesday to Monday, from 10am to 6pm, last entry at 5:30pm, Fundação Gulbenkian, Av. de Berna (metro: Praça de Espanha, São Sebastião | buses: 716, 726, 756, 746, 713, 742). Free entry. More information at: gulbenkian.pt

Hugo Canoilas. Moldada na Escuridão

“Moldada na Escuridão” is an exhibition which starts from an investigation by Hugo Canoilas into the sea beds. Having the bottom of the sea and the several aquatic environments as the starting point, the author presents an immersive installation, in which the paintings and sculptures are also protagonists of those habitats. Among colours, textures and a mixture of reality and art, the spectator observes real metamorphoses between the real and the imaginary.
Lisboa at the time of D. Manuel I
The city which aspired to the world

Until 27th March, from Tuesday to Sunday, from 10am to 6pm, last entry at 5:30pm, Palácio Pimenta, Museu de Lisboa, Campo Grande (metro: Campo Grande | buses: 701, 717, 735, 736, 738, 747, 750, 755, 767, 778, 783, 796, 798). Tickets: 3 euros.

“Lisboa no tempo de D. Manuel I” celebrates the 500 years of this monarch’s death and the Museu de Lisboa presents an exhibition about the city at that time. In a time where Portugal asserted itself as a global power, the king set in motion a big change in the capital, so as to make it more efficient in managing the empire and, at the same time, turn it into a gateway which allowed to get both to Brazil and to China. The change of the royal address to the palace at the Ribeira was only one of the many changes which have largely been kept until our days.
