NEW YEAR CONCERTS
KINO
GERMAN FILM FESTIVAL
An epic story that ends at the table.
CONCERTS

2nd January, at 4pm, Teatro Nacional de São Carlos, Rua Serpa Pinto, 9 (metro: Baixa-Chiado). Tickets: from 15 to 25 euros. More information at: tnsc.pt

New Year Concert

The Choir from the Teatro Nacional de São Carlos and the Orquestra Sinfónica Portuguesa come together again to celebrate the new year with music, a good part of which is traditionally associated with this day. This is the case of the Viennese waltzes. What both artistic groups propose is to lead the public through a pulsating, fun and festive universe. With that in mind, they will be performing the overture of the operetta The Bat, from Johann Strauss II, in which one can hear the midnight strokes, as well as the known Dance of the Hours, from the opera La Gioconda, by Ponchielli. Giuseppe Verdi will be the composer in evidence, both with his choirs of witches and people disguised as bullfighters and gipsies and with the piece Winter, from the ballet The Four Seasons. Giampaolo Vessela, chief maestro of the choir, will be conducting the singers and Antonio Piroll will be the orchestra’s musical director.

Metropolitan Orchestra of Lisboa

1st January, at 11am and 5pm, Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império (tram: 15 | buses: 714, 727, 728, 729, 751). Tickets: from 15 to 30 euros. More information at: ccb.pt

The New Year Concert by the Orquestra Metropolitana de Lisboa is already a tradition and could not be missing this year. Even because it is the best way to start the orchestra’s 30 year celebration. This is a concert for those who cannot do without the music from Johann Straus II. In fact, it has already become a ritual to start the new year with waltzes and polkas. The Metropolitana suggests a rich concert: overture of the operetta The Bat, op. 367; Voices of Spring Waltz, op.410; Artist’s Life Waltz, op. 316; Blue Danube Waltz, op.314; Pizzicato Polka; Bauern Polka, op.96A; Tritsch-Tratsch Polka, op. 214, among other classical pieces like the Lyric Waltz, the 3 Pieces for Orchestra, op.96A, by Sibelius, or the Waltz of the Flowers, from the ballet The Nutcracker. Maestro Pedro Neves will be conducting the musicians.
10th January, at 9:30pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96
(metro: Rossio, Restauradores). Tickets: from 28 to 43 euros. More information at:
coliseulisboa.com

Grand New Year Concert

The best of Strauss’ waltzes, polkas and marches will be heard and seen at the Coliseu de Lisboa, in the interpretations of the Strauss Festival Orchestra and the choreographies of the Strauss Festival Ballet Ensemble. They will be playing and dancing known pieces by the Austrian musician, such as Napoleon, Blumenfest, Klipp Klapp, The Emperor Waltz or Champagne. The most famous of all waltzes, The Blue Danube, or the Radetzky March, which usually closes the show to the beat of the public’s clapping, will also be included. This is a production acclaimed by over a million spectators all over Europe, from Vienna to Amsterdam, from Berlin to Rome, from Barcelona to Madrid, and now it is back in Lisboa.

German Film Festival

From 27th January to 2nd February, Cinema São Jorge, Av. da Liberdade, 175 (metro: Avenida).
Tickets: 4 euros, general, 3,50 euros, children and seniors. More information at: goethe.de/ins/pt

KINO’s 19th edition promises to look at the future and the cinema from a female point of view. In eight of the 15 movies signed by female directors, the subjects are very diversified, dealing with structural racism, the affective heritage, the reconstruction of self-confidence after a xenophobic attack or even the collective catharsis facing a traumatic episode of sexual manipulation. This edition again includes the three already usual sections: “Visions, for the big film productions; “Perspectives”, for first and second works and “Realities”, for the documentary films. In the end, in addition to the presentation of films, there will still also room for conversations with directors and for the revelation of the “Audience Award” with the drawing of a trip to Germany.
Do you dare to enter Alice’s world? That is the challenge which Magical Garden presents to all those who visit it. It is a magical journey through the most fun and thrilling random situations experienced by the character created by Lewis Carroll. It is a sensorial adventure inspired by “Alice in Wonderland” and “Alice Through the Looking Glass”, which proposes an immersive one kilometre journey, in which the spectator is simultaneously a part of the story. The show has no beginning and no end, unfolding in a one-way route with 24 luminous experiences taken from both books: giant luminous sculptures, light design, sound environments, multimedia and interactive installations, such as an augmented reality application. The visitor may take his time in his favourite moments, because the visit has no other time limit besides the closing of the garden.
Come and discover the mysteries of Sintra

Lisboa is the capital of Portugal and the country's biggest city, located on the estuary of the Tejo river, on the European Atlantic coast. It is continental Europe's westernmost capital. Portugal's official language is Portuguese. Derived from Latin roots, Portuguese is the third most spoken European language in the world, with around 200 million speakers. Around 3 million people live in the Lisboa region, with around 600 thousand living in the capital itself. The Portuguese Constitution allows religious freedom, with various religions being practised in Portugal.

Electric voltage: 230 / 400 volts, on a 50-hertz frequency. The electric sockets adhere to European standards. Blade plugs (US standard) must be used in conjunction with a 230 volts transformer, as well as an adaptor.

In Lisboa winters are mild and summers hot, though moderated by its location near the sea. During spring and autumn there are usually sunny days with mild temperatures.

The Euro is Portugal's official currency, having been introduced in January 2002. 1 Euro is divided into 100 cents. There are coins of 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents and 1 and 2 Euros. The bills can be distinguished by their size and colour and have the following face values: 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 Euros. In Portugal, payments can be made in cash, bank transfer, cheque, credit cards and debit cards.

Those who live outside the EU can benefit from VAT exemption in Portugal if they make purchases worth at least 50 euros and only for private use. For this purpose, you must present an identification document (passport or other official) to the seller, who will provide proof of the purchase registration. The process is completed when leaving the country, through an electronic terminal in the customs area of the airport, to certify the export of the goods acquired in Portugal and to know whether or not is entitled to a VAT refund.
Health

The Hospital Emergency Services must only be used for serious emergencies. In order to have access to this service, E.U. citizens who are non-resident in Portugal must show their passport or ID card and E111 and E112 forms.

EVENT

Winter Dream
Castelo de São Jorge

From 18th January, from 7pm to 9pm, Castelo de São Jorge, Rua de Santa Cruz do Castelo (trams: 12, 28 | bus: 737). Tickets: 5 euros, general, free up to 16 years of age.
More information at: castelodesaojorge.pt

Castelo de São Jorge will be filled with light in all its corners. To visit the monument at this time of the year is even more wonderful now. Under the January moonlight, and for one month, we will be able to see João Botelho’s light installation. Under the motto “Winter Dream”, light, sound and image will bring a new life to the Romantic Garden, the Ogival Room, to the first and second Main Squares, to the Courtyard and to the Castle Ovens.

The song of Lisboa and the World

Classified as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO since November 2011, Fado is the purest expression of Lisboa’s “soul”. Much more than just a song, Fado is a musical manifestation of feeling Portuguese and a city’s way of life, always accompanied by the solemn and melancholy chords of the Portuguese guitar.

Considered a brand inseparable from the culture and tradition of the Portuguese capital, Fado has been for at least two centuries, part of the city’s heritage that endowed it with soul and voice. But since influences from overseas, and from various cultures which arrived in Lisboa can also be heard in Fado, Lisboa’s song is now deservedly a shared heritage with the world. Inspired from a simple and sentimental language, Fado’s universal character surpasses all barriers and is now enjoyed by millions of fans worldwide. This internationalization of Fado is greatly due to the charisma and the voice of Amália Rodrigues, the most renowned fado singer of all time, who from the 1950’s took Lisboa’s song to the most prestigious venues, from Russia to Japan. More recently, a new generation of singers of this genre has given the song a new vitality, placing it in the circuits of World Music. The ultimate international recognition of Fado comes with UNESCO’s highest recognition, whose award of the Intangible Heritage of Humanity title makes this a perfect example of how a centuries-old tradition of a city becomes the identity symbol of a people. Therefore, whenever the lights are dimmed in a fado house and someone says “Silence, Fado is about to be sung”, this is not just a ritual that is being performed. It is, as Amália Rodrigues would say, “a strange form of life” that is being renewed.
Fado Houses

Here visitors can experience the whole atmosphere and rituals associated with Lisboa’s song and listen to this language of emotions. Set in the historic districts of the city such as Alfama, Bairro Alto, Lapa and Alcântara, there are diverse establishments which host regular performances of fado, with resident artists.

Swan Lake

7th January, at 9pm, and 9th January, at 4pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Restauradores). Tickets: from 22 to 35 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

The story of love, betrayal and triumph of good over evil presents itself in the Swan Lake ballet, performed by the dancers of the Russian Classical Ballet and directed by Evgeniya Bespalova. The story of an impossible love between a prince and a swan girl is already considered a great classic of the dance repertoire. The ballet requires dexterity and a high technical quality in the interpretation of the characters, as well as a high degree of drama in the interpretation of the lead dancer. The new production also includes very realistic stage elements and hand-made costume accessories.

Bach Cello Suites

9th January, at 6pm, and 10th January, at 8pm, Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian, Av. de Berna, 45A (metro: São Sebastião, Praça de Espanha | buses: 713, 716, 718, 726, 742, 746, 756). Tickets: from 20 to 30 euros. More information at: gulbenkian.pt

The renowned Belgium choreographer Anne Teresa de Keersmaeker continues to rely on her close relationship to the composer J. S. Bach. After having worked on the “Brandenburg Concertos” and the “Partita for Violin solo no. 2”, the artist now develops a choreographic score at the sound of the “Six Suites for Cello Solo” by Bach. In a performance in which the cellist Jean-Guihen Queyras is accompanied by his cello, Keersmaeker and four other dancers dance and dialogue with the German composer’s notes.
DANCE

The Nutcracker

8th January, at 4pm and 9pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Restauradores). Tickets: from 22 to 35 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

The Nutcracker, performed by the Russian Classical Ballet, goes on stage at the Coliseu de Lisboa. The dancers, directed by the famous Evgeniya Bespalova, bring a new production of the story of the toy which comes to life on Christmas Eve and leads the public through an enchanted world, full of characters which are sometimes evil and sometimes charming. The story, which exalts the capacity to dream and is filled with romance and fantasy, is presented in a classical production with realistic stage design, where the costumes are hand-made and the details are sumptuous.

Insónia

13th and 14th January, at 9pm, Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império (tram: 15 | buses: 714, 727, 728, 729, 751). Tickets: from 18 euros. More information at: ccb.pt

In this show, choreographer Olga Roriz directs dancers of four nationalities: Portuguese, Italian, British and Polish. “Insomnia” is presented as being a claim of the body’s place, from its energy to its frailty. It is a study about the feminine and the masculine, the male and the female, with no defined sex, without gender. Eroticism is present in this ballet, shown as a solitary game, a way of liberation, an institution which is human and at the same time animal. With soundtrack by Olga Roriz herself and by João Raposo, the dance embodies love, gender and genetics and represents stories shared with decorum or crudely.
The best music in the movies

11th January, at 9:30pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Rossio, Restauradores). Tickets: from 26 to 34 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

The Hollywood Symphony Orchestra presents a program which promises to thrill the movie and music lovers, performing melodies which helped consecrate some of the most popular and awarded movies of all time. Based in Los Angeles, this North-American symphonic orchestra is directed by maestro and composer John Beal.
Calema

Yellow

14th January, at 9:30pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Rossio, Restauradores). Tickets: from 25 to 40 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

"Yellow" is the most recent album by Calema and the centre of this show. Defined as a return to the roots, this new work from the bothers António and Fradique is based on the influences from the African culture, gathering songs which aggregate the sonorities of countries like São Tomé e Príncipe, Angola, Mozambique and Guiné. This is the case of song like “Allez”, “Amar 24/24” and “Abraços”, examples of happy and contagious sonorities, but also of the positive message which the duo wants to convey with this concert.

Kevinho, Diego & Victor Hugo

16th January, at 4pm, Coliseu de Lisboa, Rua das Portas de Santo Antão, 96 (metro: Rossio, Restauradores). Tickets: from 35 to 70 euros. More information at: coliseulisboa.com

Funk and Sertanejo go on stage at the Coliseu de Lisboa for an unprecedented concert in Portugal, where Kevinho will be with Diego, Vitor Hugo and Dj Raffa Lima. Kevinho, the Brasilian musician who is already known to the Portuguese public through hits like “Olha a Explosão” e “Ô Bebê”, will be performing with Diego & Victor Hugo, the musicians who started to make a name for themselves with hits in the repertoire of other artists and are already considered a success in the sertanejo music in Brazil. Dj Raffa Lima, who will also be making an appearance, is already known in Europe and considered to be an artist who diversifies his set, ranging from funk to electronic music, not forgetting sertanejo.
Michael Jackson Tribute

15th January, at 9pm, Altice Arena – Sala Tejo, Parque das Nações (metro: Oriente).
Tickets: from 24 to 32 euros. More information at: arenaaltice.com

The biggest concert hall in Lisboa hosts the celebration of one of the world pop music icons: Michael Jackson. For two hours it will be possible to revisit the artist’s trajectory, with live music, accompanied by fantastic special effects, impressive voices and, of course, an explosive choreography. Michael Jackson’s extraordinary presence on stage will be recalled through hits like “Bad”, “Thriller”, “Beat it”, “Black or White”, ”Man in the Mirror”, ”The Way you Make me Feel”, ”I’ll Be There”, ”Billy Jean” and many more. The show, intended for all ages, promises to make the spectators feel like mimicking the famous “moonwalking” step all the way home.
CONCERTS

Carolina Deslandes

The Portuguese singer Carolina Deslandes returns to one of the most emblematic concert halls of the city of Lisboa, the Coliseu, for two shows. Considered to be one of the greatest artists of the new generation of national singers and composers, she will be presenting her most recent project, made up of an EP and a short film, entitled “MULHER” (WOMAN). This is the maximum expression of an artist who fights for causes, with the songs and the fiction written, narrated and starred by Carolina herself playing several generations of women who are the victims of domestic violence. “MULHER” was number 1 in iTunes on the day of its release and the single “Não Me Importo” entered directly into Spotify’s top 100 in Portugal.

Rui Reininho
20 000 Éguas Submarinas

Rui Reininho invites the public on a journey to the 20 000 Éguas Submarinas. With as much of his own as of unusual, with songs diluted into instrumentals, each one with its own roots and stories, sometimes wrapped in vibrations from the mountains, sometimes acclaiming the silence of the depths of the sea, the journey to this surreal and surprising world imagined by Rui Reininho happens at Lux Frágil and is assisted by Paulo Borges in the production, Alexandre Soares on the electric guitar, Julius Gabriel on the saxophone and Pedro Oliveira on the drums and percussions.

Rui de Luna with Banda da Armada

Some of the great songs which are part of the musical heritage will go on stage by the voice of baritone Rui de Luna, who has chosen to welcome the new year with a show entirely dedicated to the theme of the sea, the Diaspora and the Portuguese culture. Thus, he will be interpreting hits from Trovante, Xu-tos e Pontapés, Madredeus and Amor Electro, from Rodrigo Leão and Alain Oulman. But also verses from Camões, Fernando Pessoa, Florbela Espanca and Pedro Homem de Mello. The arrangements are by the musician Pedro Pires. The singer is accompanied by the Banda da Armada, directed by maestro Délio Gonçalves, having the young guitarist Francisco Pereira as a guest.

21st January, at 9pm, Teatro Nacional de São Carlos, Rua Serpa Pinto, 9 (metro: Baixa-Chiado). Tickets: from 15 to 25 euros. More information at: tnsc.pt

Shymphonic Concert

The Orquestra Sinfónica Portuguesa, under the musical direction of José Eduardo Gomes, starts this concert with a tribute to two of the most important composers of the twentieth century. One of them is the Russian Sergei Prokofiev, whose Symphony no. 1, written at 25 years of age and better known as Classical Symphony, will be played. The other is Maurice Ravel, who, in 1828, orchestrated “Menuet”, a piece originally written for piano in honour of Emmanuel Chabrier. The concert continues with the absolute premiere of "O Mostrengo", a tribute to the poet Fernando Pessoa by the Portuguese composer Marco Pereira. To finish, the orchestra will be performing Igor Stravinsky’s “The Firebird”.

Orphée
Philip Glass

More information at: ccb.pt

Orphée, by Philip Glass, is inspired by Jean Cocteau’s film about the myth of Orpheus, the poet and musician who did everything to bring his loved one Eurydice back from the dead. This chamber opera is presented at the Grande Auditório of the CCB with staging by the Brazilian Felipe Hirsch, with the Orquestra Metropolitana de Lisboa and maestro Pedro Neves. The work which resulted in the show was above all centred on Jean Cocteau, a very complete and diverse artist. The adaptation for the opera considered the mirror as being a character, a symbol of the relationship with death and aging.
Lisboa
An invitation to shop

January is the perfect month to shop and Lisboa is the perfect destination. From one end to the other, the eyes get lost in the window displays which are still full of the Christmas spirit but invite you to come in with their vast range of products at irresistible prices. After all, it is sales season. From Baixa to Chiado, passing Avenida da Liberdade, among small historical spaces and the international insignias, Lisboa is a world where tradition, modernity and luxury come together. Not to mention the modern shopping centres. Roaming through Lisboa's most historical streets, we can find some traces of the commerce of old times in the typical houses which sell products that are as traditional as useful or decorative. In Rossio, it is worth it to take a peek into the inside of Tabacaria Mónaco. Established in 1875, when we enter this tobacco, cigar, newspaper and magazine selling store, we get a feeling of having gone back in time: a unique naturalistic decoration, with cabinets in Brazilian wood, a water sprout, tiles and Rafael Bordalo Pinheiro’s swallows, paintings on the windows and frescos by António Ramalho on the ceiling. On the way to Chiado, in Rua do Carmo, the façade of the jewellery store which gives the street its name leaves no passerby indifferent. Inside, the traditional Portuguese filigree is the star. The decoration, despite some small changes, has kept its original style. The furniture is the same: displays, doors, the centre table with marble top, the crystal chandeliers and the spiral staircase remain in the store since the decade of 1920. Just a few metres away, in Rua Nova do Almada, it is possible to go into the second oldest bookstore in the country. Livraria Ferin, an unavoidable stop for book collectors. Closer to the river, already in Rua dos Bacalhoeiros, after having passed Praça do Comércio, we can find the Conserva de Lisboa. With its wooden shelves lined with colourful cans, this store houses the wonderful world of canned fish, many of which from Portuguese waters.
From traditional products to modern and luxury commerce, Lisboa offers a little of everything. Between restaurants, hotels and concert halls, Avenida da Liberdade, considered to be one of the most luxurious streets in the world, invites for a visit to brand stores like Carolina Herrera, Louis Vuitton, Cartier, Burberry or Michael Kors.
Besides the street commerce, the shopping centres are also well deserving of a visit. In Amoreiras Shopping Center, which colourful towers do not go unnoticed, the over 200 stores, ranging from fashion, decoration, culture, leisure, food, health and beauty, are joined by a terrace with a 360º view over the city. An absolute must!
Other examples multiply. Such as the Centro Comercial Vasco da Gama, in Parque das Nações. Accessible by train, bus or metro, besides the diversity in the product range, it also has a series of terraces with a panoramic view over the Tejo. On the other river bank, after crossing the Vasco da Gama bridge, the Freeport Lisboa Fashion Outlet is another option for a shopping day. With leisure areas, resting spots and food court, the stores are set in outdoor galleries, providing a unique experience.
From the most typical and traditional products to the most sophisticated ones, Lisboa embraces all kinds of commerce. Come and find out for yourself.
EXHIBITIONS

Arquitetura e Jogo

Until 30th January, Tuesday to Sunday, from 10am to 6pm, Centro Cultural de Belém, Praça do Império (tram: 15 | buses: 714, 727, 728, 729, 751). Tickets: general, 6 euros. More information at: ccb.pt

This exhibition focuses on the idea of “creating worlds” and on imagination and play built around mythological narratives. In the same way that children’s games are a springboard from which they invent worlds, architects imagine and create new worlds through their art. The “Architects At Play” exhibition addresses various themes related to these two creative forms: childhood and education, history, architecture, urban planning, public space, art and invention.

Exposição de Veit Stratmann

Until 30th January, Wednesday to Sunday from 3pm to 7pm, Lumiar Cité, Rua Tomás Del Negro (metro: Lumiar | buses: 798, 717). Free entry. More information at: maumaus.org

The artist Veit Stratmann is holding his first exhibition in Lisboa. After defining Lumiar Cité, transforming it into a space in which the gallery and the urban environment engage. The artist intervened in the gallery, using standard measurements for doors and entry and exit points. In the glass, Stratmann has converted the gallery’s interior and exterior into a real public art project. The manner in which it has been changed has transformed the entire space into a stage upon which the visitor becomes the protagonist of the work.
Daniel Dewar & Grégory Gicquel

From 29th January, from Tuesday to Friday, from noon to 7pm, weekend, from 11 am to 6pm, Culturgest, Rua Arco do Cego (metro: Campo Pequeno). Tickets: from Tuesday to Saturday, 5 euros, Sunday, 1 euro. More information at: culturgest.pt

In this exhibition, Daniel Dewar and Grégory Gicquel present a world which is rather similar to ours, but with slight differences and distortions. Augmented, fragmented, chipped, molten and even duplicated objects create the idea that they exist in another dimension or in another planet, where the absurd gives way to the ordinary an daily. The artists’ duo, which has worked together since the time they were college students, uses terracotta, wood, stone and textile, both for their artistic productions and to create the utensils they then use to make the objects.

Japão, uma terra de poetas

In this exhibition by Catarina Quintas, winner of the competition to support artistic creation for young people at the beginning of their careers, each drawing can represent a short trip to traditional Japan. Full of customs and histories, the beauty of Japan is represented here in Chinese ink and watercolor drawings. In Japan, land of poets, the investigation joins the imagination to recreate episodes from everyday life and from the Japanese spiritual dimension. The artist tried to reproduce some of the aspects she admires in Japanese culture, as a tribute to a land of poets.
EXHIBITIONS

Until 27th February, Tuesday to Friday from 10am to 6pm, last entry 5.30pm, weekends from 10am to 2pm and from 3pm to 6pm, Museu Nacional de Arte Contemporânea, Rua Serpa Pinto, 4 (metro: Baixa-Chiado | buses: 60, 208, 758 | trams: 24 and 28). Tickets: 4.50 euros. More information at: museuartecontemporanea.gov.pt

What if architect Eileen Gray’s E.1027 house was reproduced at a 1:1 scale? To address the theme of the modern in the feminine and not forget the path traced by Eileen Gray, the National Museum of Contemporary Art presents an exhibition that seeks to reveal not only the architectural space but also 15 original pieces of furniture by the author. More than just seeing, this exhibition allows you to experiment and touch the objects on display, in order to further connect the public to art, design and architecture.

CISNOGRAFIA

A reescrita do cisne

Until 27th February, from Tuesday to Sunday, from 10am to 6pm, Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga, Rua das Janelas Verdes (buses: 713, 714, 727). Tickets: 6 euros, general, students and seniors, 3 euros. More information at: museudearteantiga.pt

This exhibition was created by choreographer Luiz Antunes and had the artistic direction of choreographer André Mendes. The rewriting of the swan is the result of a challenge made to 13 choreographers, performances and interpreters, who were asked to, individually and having their own languages and work codes in mind, rewrite the death of the swan. Each solo results in a three minute film, coming to a total of thirteen films to which a final one was added, with a summary and a dramaturgical connection to all the previous ones. Using objects from the history of dance, contexts and ideologies, this work creates ideological patterns which question the dominant ethic and aesthetic regimes.
Fracture Empire
Samson Kambalu

Until 6th February, Tuesday to Friday, from 12pm to 7pm, weekends from 11am to 6pm, Culturgest, Rua do Arco do Cego (metro: Campo Pequeno). Tickets: 5 euros. More information at: culturgest.pt

Samson Kambalu is presenting his work for the first time in Portugal in the most complete exhibition of his output to date. Recognised internationally as a translator and interpreter of African culture for Western eyes, the visual artist from Malawi presents a number of works at Culturgest, ranging from drawing and painting to installation and video. Humour, excess, transgression and the mixing of the cultures of various countries are the traits that characterise Samson Kambalu and force the audience to reflect on the preconceived limits of history, art, religion and individual freedom.

The 700th anniversary of the death of Dante Alighieri is being marked in this exhibition of Alberto Manguel’s marionettes in the Casa Fernando Pessoa temporary exhibitions hall. Manguel, a writer and researcher, is an expert on the works of the author of “The Divine Comedy”. Some years ago he revealed a hitherto unknown facet of his life: that of the amateur puppet master. This exhibition combines his oldest passion with his most recent, with 89 marionettes that he created on the basis of the 14th-century masterpiece. Visitors can also see the notebooks in which he has collected clippings of reproductions of the works that inspired him, as well as his original sketches. Copies of “The Divine Comedy” owned by Fernando Pessoa and Alberto Manguel will also be on display. An Argentine-Canadian, Manguel is currently the director of the Centro de Estudos da História da Leitura in Lisboa.

Light and darkness are the words to describe this exhibition featuring more than 20 sculptures using lamps, projections and architectural elements. This exhibition is arranged throughout the building without the use of any supporting structures or lighting systems. The light comes only from the items themselves, leading spectators through multi-sensory experiences, on a unique journey involving different sizes, dimensions and luminosities.

Lx 14 mayo 1575

Until 15th May, from Wednesday to Sunday, from 10am to 6pm, last entry at 5:30pm; Museu do Dinheiro, Largo de São Julião (buses: 206, 210, 706, 728, 735, 774, 781, 782). Free entry. More information at: museudodinheiro.pt

Five centuries ago, more precisely on a May day in 1575, the view of Lisboa from the Tejo was quite different from the one we have today. At the time, Portugal was a commercial empire, pioneer in the opening of several sea routes and Lisboa had the Tejo as an entrance door, where every day ships arrived with merchandise from all the cities in the world. On a normal day, 14th May, Simão de Miranda, a Portuguese in the service of the duke of Turin, arrived on a ship and took the opportunity of his short visit to draw and impressive view of the city from the Tejo. It was because of archaeological evidences recovered from the old church of S. Julião, where this drawing was included, that several objects from that time were found. This exhibition reveals aspects from the daily life of the city of Lisboa by the end of the sixteenth century.

Until 22nd January, Wednesday to Sunday, from 10am to 6pm, Fundação Arpad Szenes - Vieira da Silva, Praça das Amoreiras (metro: Rato | buses: 706, 709, 713, 758, 720, 727, 738, 774, 723). Tickets: general, 5 euros, students and seniors 2.50 euros, free until 2pm on Sundays. More information at: fasvs.pt

Here Anne Lefebvre presents a show in which she begins with the manipulation of the structural elements of photography. She introduces actions associated with the pictorial context into the process of capturing and developing the image, creating a universe of strangeness and ambiguity which dilutes the expectations of the information contained in a photograph. While her first solo exhibition took place at the Centre Georges Pompidou in Paris in 1993, since 1980 she has had her work exhibited in many countries, including Belgium, Germany, Holland, Austria, Turkey and the United States.
